PERSONAL.

DR. HOWARD MAHAN, of Philadelphia, an eminent and venerable Baptist minister, in an appeal to the churches, says: "We Baptists have swung from neglecting ministerial education to neglecting an uneducated ministry.

HAVING noticed the seizure of Dr. James Thayer's circus, and mentioned as two of the claimants for money due for services, Mr. Franklin J. Howes and wife, a Cincinnati paper has received a letter from a lady in New York, who claims to be the only lawful wife of the said Howes, and emphatically denies any connection with Thayer's circus, or any other, for several years.

TWO Americans at Baden Baden, the other day, were dining with a pair of Paris ladies, when a Russian Prince, who perhaps wished to pick a quarrel, purchased two glorious boquets and sent them to the ladies with his compliments. The Americans merely glanced over to his table, bowed cordially, and sent him back by the waiter two Napoleons. He was so much chagrined that he left the room.

W. C. BRYANT once wrote to a young contributor: "My young friend, I observe that you have used several French expressions in your article. I think that if you will study the English language you will find it capable of expressing all the ideas you may have. I have always found it so, and in all that I have written I do not recall an instance where I was tempted to use a foreign word but that, on searching, I found a better one in my own language."

POPE PIUS IX. is now 77 years of age, and he has been Pope 23 years. He is described as a vigorous old man, of most benevolent and venerable aspect. Personally he is extremely popular with almost all classes of his people. He is said to be a man of blameless life and the best possible intentions, but he adheres to the ideas of the past, both political and theological, with a tenacity most wonderful to witness, especially to his power as a temporal sovereign. He is a man of the simplest manners and habits.

AT the close of his lecture in Music Hall, Boston, recently, Rev. Mr. Fuller was introduced to several ladies occupying seats on the platform, among others to Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, who refused to shake hands with him, and said: "You profess to be a Christian minister, sir, and you have reviled women." "Better do that, madam," replied he, "than to revile Jesus Christ." "I never reviled Jesus Christ," she said. "You have done your best to do it," said he. "Sir," she responded, "you have played the part of a dramatist and a buffoon." "Madam," said he, "your birth, your education, and your position in society should have made a lady of you." She replied, "Do you mean to say, sir, that I am not a lady?" "I mean to say, madam," said he, "that you act like an outrageous exception." At this point Mrs. Livermore and Mrs. Lucy Stone Blackwell took up the conversation, and Mrs. Howe withdrew.

Minnesota—Country, Climate and Railroads.

The traveler who starts from St. Paul and travels westward will find prairie country of deep rich loam; but if he travels eastward, or towards the northeast, he will find himself in the woods—dense forests, where tall pines and spruces and oaks and maples rear their gigantic trunks. It is not all forest, for here and there we see "openings," where the sunlight falls on pleasant meadows or patches of prairie; but speaking in general terms the entire country east of the Mississippi, in Minnesota and northern Wisconsin, and in that portion of Michigan lying between Superior and Lake Michigan, is one vast forest region—the paradise of the lumberman.

The soil in places is sandy, and the geologist will see satisfactory traces of the drift period when a great flood of waters set southward over all the country, bringing granite boulders, pebbles, and stones from the country lying between Hudson's Bay and Lake Superior.

The forest growth affects the climate. The snow and rain fall East of the Mississippi is much greater than West of that dividing stream. The temperature in Winter on Lake Superior is milder than at St. Paul, but there is more moisture in the air. The climate at Duluth or Superior City during the Winter does not vary much from that of Chicago. Notwithstanding the difference of latitude, the isothermal line of mean temperature for the year runs from the lower end of Lake Michigan to the Western end of Lake Superior. Probably more snow falls in the Minnesota Lake region than in the country around Chicago, for in all forest regions in Northern latitudes there is usually a heavier rain and snow fall than in open countries. The time will come when the rain fall of Eastern Minnesota and Northern Michigan will be less than it is at the present time. When the country becomes settled, when the lumbermen have swept away the forests, when the sun pouring down its rays dries up the moisture, and the winds waft it to other regions, there will be less deposition of moisture East of the Mississippi, while the probabilities are that it will be increased Westward over all the prairie region; for if in a wooded country civilization sweeps away the forest, so in a prairie region civilization brings in new verdure. Orchards, groves, patches of timber land, corn fields, wheat fields, clover lands—all will appear in time, requiring and receiving more moisture from the surrounding air than the prairie grasses do at the present time. Everybody knows that the hand of man is powerful enough to change climate, to increase the rain fall here, to diminish it there; to lower the temperature or to raise it.

The Ohio river is dwindling in size because the forests of Ohio and Pennsylvania are disappearing. Palestine, Syria and Greece, although they have supported dense populations, are barren to-day because the forests have been cut down. If this were an essay on the power of man over nature, instead of the writing out of a few notes on Minnesota, I might go on and give abundant data, but I allude to it incidentally in connection with the climate of the Northwest, which, fifty years hence, will not in all probability be the same that it is to-day.—Cor. Boston Journal.

Bridal Gifts.

As things go now-a-days an invitation to a wedding is no laughing matter. Those pasteboard squares, with their entanglement of monograms, summon us to take part in a great many absurdities of custom; but, of all these, the most absurd and burdensome is that of giving presents. The fact is that the marrying people practise upon all their friends at the present day a system of barefaced extortion without giving them the right to resent or expose it. There is no sense of spontaneity or sentiment in these gifts; they are purchased because they must be, and this the receiver well understands. The exaction upon people of moderate means, rating their affections before the town by the number of dollars they are able or willing to invest on the occasion, and notifying them, if the gift be small, by parading it, with name attached, in contrast with the outlay of wealthier friends, is so essentially vulgar and indelicate that it is a wonder how it ever came to be tolerated in any society claiming to be refined. The custom is absurd also, as well as vulgar and burdensome, when one comes to reflect upon it. The matrimonial party really gain nothing; for they have to repay the same in value when the donors invite them to a similar occasion, so that their gifts are simply loans. How many times the bride must have said, "Thank you very much; how lovely it is!" over this amount of plate, when she knows that the equivalent which must be given for it in the future would purchase a uniform service after her own heart. As it is, each couple find themselves possessed of a heterogeneous mass of silverware, not only unlike in design, but with excesses and deficiencies which nobody could foresee.—N. Y. World.

ROME.

LONDON, November 4.—The correspondent of the Post writes as follows from Rome concerning the expected action of Council: The dogmatic definition of the assumption of the Virgin Mary will encounter no obstacles. The people earnestly desire the consolidation of this dogma. The erection into a dogma of the necessity of the temporal power is not considered possible by its most ardent champions. The foundation and preservation of that power do not afford the elements of a dogma, and belief in its necessity is not even proximo fidi, but only of high importance. Probably the protests of 1862 and '67 will be received. It is suggested that the liberal Bishops will advise that terms be made with the Kingdom of Italy so that all appointments—even the Popedom, may be conferred without the destruction of nationality. But such a change of policy, although desirable, is improbable at present, and must be left to time and the force of events. The Council does not have the initiative with respect to the syllabus. It would be absurd to think that the syllabus will be abrogated. It is more probable that the Bishops will be asked to sanction it by open and unanimous adhesion, and to explain such portions as are obscurely worded or erroneously interpreted. Beyond those points the Council will only be occupied with questions of internal decipline such as reform of missions, the reunion of chismatics and hereticts with the church, modifications of the religious orders, the amelioration of instructions to the clergy, and the adatations of the judicial power of Bishops to the condition of society. It is important to observe that the iniative in everything belongs to the Pope alone. As the Roman Catholic Hierachy is strongly and judiciously constituted it is improbable that any serious opposition will be manifested.

Serious Charge—An Ex-Colonel in Trouble—The Seceders Endorsed—The Yellow Fever on Shipboard—Counterfeiters Arrested, with Interesting Particulars of their Capture—Dr. Schaff's Mission to Europe—The Gold Muddle.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

NEW YORK, November 5, 1869.

A case came before Judge Fithian yesterday in which Patrick O'Toole, a lad of eighteen, sued the managers of the House of Refuge for ten thousand dollars damage, on account of bad treatment in keeping him in a close room on insufficient food, in consequence of which he got the itch and became much debilitated.

Col. Clarke, formerly of the Thirteenth Brooklyn Regiment, was before Commissioner Osborn yesterday, charged with engraving plates for the manufacture of counterfeit currency. He was held in $25,000 bail.

Last evening the St. John Baptist Society met in Masonic Hall and approved the action of their delegates, who had withdrawn from the Fifttieth General Convention of the French Canadians in the United States, which assembled in Detroit, October 13th.

The steamer Enterpe, from Havana, has arrived. The first mate died Nov. 1st of yellow fever. The second mate, a waiter, a seaman and one passenger are now down with it. The steamer is detained at quarantine.

Col. Whitly, of the Secret Service, and Assistants, have for over a month been engaged in ferriting out one of the most notorious gang of counterfeiters in the country, and have just brought their labors to a successful close. It was first ascertained that a dangerous sixty pound tobacco stamp was being offered to enterprising tobacco merchants at about one-fifth the Government price—$3 for a stamp sold by the Government at $19 and $20. The inducements were so great that many firms heretofore bearing unblemished reputations in this city, Virginia, North Carolina, and other States, embarked in the enterprise and purchased large lots from the New York manufacturers. The first arrest was made October 15th, in the person of Volney Wright, who, it is alleged, had endeavored to sell an immense quantity of these $60 pound stamps to men named Copeland and Walker. He was quietly held to bail in eight thousand dollars to await the action of the Grand Jury. The bed piece, roll and plate, with six transfers, were secured by the detective. The next arrest was one Hart Pierce, an accomplished engraver, on October 30th, with whom were seized all the dies and machinery in use in counterfeiting, among which was a press for transferring, costing one thousand dollars. Col. Robert Clark, who, during the war, commanded the Fourteenth N. Y. Volunteers, was next secured and his room searched. In almost every bureau drawer, stand drawers, boxes, trunks and valises evidences of his guilt were found. One of the valises contained the plate of the sixty pound stamp, dies for marking one penny stamps, hundreds of sheets containing 210 pound stamps, together with about $15,000 worth of clean genuine stamps. The property was all seized. It was next ascertained that the mill where these stamps were ground out was situated about fifteen miles from this city at Princes Bay, Staten Island. Seven men were sent to the spot, and after a tramp of a half mile trough woods, they discovered the building in which were arrested John Ribon, steel and ceoper plate printer, a native of England and thirty-six years of age. His partner, Wm. S. Kempton, a native of Maine, forty years of age, a retired sea captain, Ripon's wife, three children and a colored girl were on the premises. In one room was found a large amount of paper, such as is used by the Government in the manufacture of revenue stamps. A large supply of inks, oils and jugs filled with gum—the latter used for adhesive purposes. Also, a die for making three cent silver pieces: steel dies for stamping coins containing all the letters of the alphabet: dies for all arithmetical figures, but no plates or printed work. In another room was a perforating press for punching the holes between the stamps on the printed sheets. In the garden, about eighteen inches below the surface, was found, on information given by Ripon, a box which contained the plate on which had been transferred the one cent revenue stamp two hundred and ten times, the bed piece and transferring die, a large number stamps, thousands of printed sheets ready for use, and other articles. The prisoners and materials were brought to the city, and the former taken to U. S. Marshal's office where they were held in custody. It was now ascertained that an engraver named Reuben Carpenter, having an office in Boston, had been employed to engrave the United States 5-20 bonds. Officers were sent to Boston, and with the assistance of detectives there, arrested Carpenter in the act of engraving a pass on the Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad. He surrendered to the officers a $1,000 5-20 bond, which he had been employed to engrave by a man in this city, who was in the last stages of consumption. It is alleged numerous other prominent persons of this city are under suspicion and surveillance, and it is believed several hundred thousand dollars of these bogus stamps have been put in circulation.

A large meeting was held to-day to hear the report of Rev. Dr. Schaff upon his late mission to Europe, connected with the Convention of the Evangelical Alliance, to be held in New York next autumn. Dr. Schaff reports quite a large delegation who have engaged to be present from England, including clergymen of the Church of England, Dissenters and laymen, while the Archbishops of York, Canterbury and Dublin, and other leading prelates, expressed hearty cooperation with the movement. Rev. Dr. Thompson, speaking of Father Hyacinthe, said that, while not desiring to reveal private conversation, he would say the Hyacinth brought letters to him from two French Protestant clergymen speaking of him as in close spiritual communion with them, and as taking the noble position of Luther. Rev. L. W. Bacon read a letter from Father Hyacinthe, alluding to his desire for freedom of opinion.

The Grand Jury is still investigating the gold muddle, and propose carrying on the investigation till some conclusion is reached.

Many persons were present from the District of Columbia, and quite a number from distant States.

Along the line of procession the sidewalks were crowded with whites and blacks. Perfect order prevailed.

Bishop Waynan delivered an address this evening, and the celebration closed to-night with a grand ball at Douglass Institute.

Protest of Pork Packers—Capital Removal—Washingtonians Agitated—Looking after California Revenue Matters—Minister Low and Chinese Immigration—Appointment.

WASHINGTON, November 4, 1869.

PROTEST OF PORK PACKERS.

Some time ago Commissioner Delano decided that under the Internal Revenue law, as it now stands, pork packers were liable to be taxed as manufacturers. The pork packers think this unjust, and the Chambers of Commerce of New York, Boston, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis have sent a delegation here to protest against it. These gentlemen called upon the Commissioner to-day, but that official gave it as his opinion that the fault was not with him, but with Congress, and if there was any grievance Congress was the place to go for redress. The pork packers contend that they produce one of the necessaries of life, and have no more right to be taxed as manufacturers than millers have who grind wheat and make flour. The difference is, however, that the law expressly excepts floor, while pork is not mentioned. An effort will be made to get the Commissioner to call the attention of Congress to this matter in his report. Congressman Eggleston, of Cincinnati, who is one of the delegates here, says it was not the intention of Congress to tax pork packers as manufacturers when the internal revenue bill was passed.

OUR CHINESE MINISTER.

Minister Low had an interview yesterday with the President and Secretary of State, at which the various questions relating to the policy to be pursued by this Government towards China, particularly in regard to the large anticipated immigration from that country, were quite fully discussed. Mr. Low's suggestions on these subjects were found to accord with the views entertained by the President and Secretary Fish, and a basis was settled for the former's instruction, which will outline the leading features of a policy the details of which he will be allowed the largest liberty in arranging and carrying into effect. The nature of the instructions now in course of preparation has not been made public, but it is understood on reliable authority they contemplate giving a full and fair trial to what is known as the conciliatory policy.

CAPITAL REMOVAL.

The effort to counteract the influence of the capital movers in the West, is beginning to assume form. A paper has been prepared to be handed to the President, with the request that he will take some cognizance of the matter in his forthcoming annual message, discountenancing the subject of removal and to use his Executive influence in stopping an agitation of the subject.

The Lord-McCormick Church Difficulty—Trial of Rev. Isaac B. Smith Charged With Drowning His Wife.

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—The Committee of the Presbyterian General Assembly, O. S., which has been in session for some time past investigating the affairs of the Theological Seminary, closed their labors last evening. The long standing disagreement between Rev. Dr. S. Lord, Divinity Professor in the Northwestern Theological School, and H. McCormick, has been brought to an end by a compromise, satisfactory to both parties. It will be recollected that Mr. McCormick subscribed one hundred thousand dollars to the School, and had paid seventy-five thousand, when political differences arose in the institution which resulted in the election of Dr. Lord, republican, to the Divinity Chair, and in the refusal of Mr. McCormick to pay the balance of the promised endowement, which he had meanwhile transferred to the theological department of a university in Virginia over which Gen. Lee presided. The matter was brought before the last general assembly, and a committee appointed, at the head of which was Senator Drake, of Missouri, which met here a few days ago. Last evening the result was arrived at. Dr. Lord remains in his present chair, Mr. McCormick is released from the payment of the twenty-five thousand claimed to be due the school, and the three directors, Judge Lincoln, Clark and H. G. Spafford, of this city, and one other, who were elected during the quarrel, all of Dr. Lord's party should, to make things harmonious, resign, and that three others, acceptable to each party, should take their places. To this all consented, the contestants signed the papers, and the strife ended.

The trial of Rev. Isaac B. Smith, the Congregational clergyman residing at Junction, Kane county, charged with drowning his wife in Poplar creek, a small stream in the confines of Cook and Kane counties, on the 13th of June last, was commenced in the Kane Circuit Court, at Geneva, yesterday. It will be recollected that while fording the stream in a buggy, in which was himself and wife, that the latter, as he claimed, fell from the buggy in a fainting fit and was drowned before he could rescue her. The water in the creek where she was drowned was less than twenty inches deep. Subsequent developments led to the suspicion that Smith had drowned his wife for the purpose of obtaining an insurance to the amount of nine thousand dollars, which he had on her life, and he was arrested, indicted and committed on the charge of murdering her. All day yesterday was occupied in impannelling a jury. A large number of clergymen were present yesterday who gave the prisoner their sympathy and support. The Court room was crowded and great interest is manifested in the trial. The prisoner is defended by Hon. J. F. Farnsworth, Hon. Charles Wheaton, A. Barry and J. S. Wilcox. The prosecution is conducted by C. J. Metzgar, State Attorney, E. S. Joslyn and James Coleman.

PHILADELPHIA, November 4.—A number of Jewish Rabbis, from the principal cities of the Union, are in conference here on the subject of reform in the Jewish Church. They adopted resolutions abolishing the use of prayers in the Hebrew tongue as unintelligible to the masses, disclaiming the doctrine of bodily resurrection, or the revival of the Jewish state by regregation from all other nations, and declaring the Aaronic priesthood and the Mosaic sacrificial worship to have been merely preparatory to Israel's national priesthood, and therefore things of the past to be mentioned in prayer only in their educational capacity and not to be practical.

CINCINNATI, November 4.—Fistiania is in trouble here. Allen and his backers refuse to accept Mr. Murray, of St. Louis, as final stakeholder. Bill Carroll came here last night for the purpose of selecting one satisfactory to both parties. McCoole demands Murray. The difficulty threatens to break up the McCoole-Allen mill.

ST. LOUIS.

Closing Proceedings of the Baptist Sunday School Convention—Systematic Piracy and Robbery—The Perpetrators Shot.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 4.—Among the section reports presented to-day to the Baptist Sunday School Convention was one giving the following statistics: Number of States represented, 19; number of representatives, 136; number of officers and schools throughout the country, 636; teachers, 2,508; scholars, 2,656.

Mr. Marston reported from the common management of Schools that we need a series of uniform lessons properly prepared and puplished in a weekly Sunday School paper for the benefit of all Baptist Sunday Schools of America. That such a series would be of inestimable value to superintendents and secure the cooperation more fully of pastors and church members.

Rev. Mr. Lowry, of Chicago, Chairman of Section Second, made a report that the use of question books was hurtful and injurious to substantial progress in the knowledge of the word of God, in preventing the degree of study necessary to promote intellectual descipline.

Reports were also made from Section Third, and two supplementary reports, were presented, all of which having been hurriedly prepared, were referred back to the various committees to be perfected for publication.

During the devotional exercises preceding the afternoon session, Rev. Dr. Bronson, of Beumah, India, addressed the meeting by invitation. The Dr. described the good of Sunday schools in Beumah. The children learned hymns which they sung at home and thus interested their parents in the cause. He said he thought they were going too far in the old track in mission work. They ought to begin something new. It was not necessary that a missionary should be a learned Doctor of Divinity. They wanted somebody to tell the simple story of Jesus. Let the Sunday Schools send them teachers, and they would support them. He wished the Convention had considered the relations of Sunday Schools to foreign mission work. He wished them to be filled with mission work, and they would raise up something to influence the heathen world. Though he had seen thirty-five years of mission work he was not tired, but would gird himself afresh to the work.

Subsequently, Mr. Jacobs, of Chicago, stated that for lack of funds, Dr. Bronson would be obliged to return to Burmah by sail vessel which would occupy five months, whereas if he had a thousand dollars he could go to England by steamer, thence via Suez Canal in a few weeks. A subscription was taken up on the spot, and about eight hundred dollars raised, namely, from the various Sunday Schools in all parts of the country represented in the Convention.

Rev. E. G. Taylor, of Illinois, began to read a paper on the improvement of the Sunday schools, but suspended reading at the request of Mr. Blackall, of Chicago, and the entire convention repaired to the church steps, where a fine photograph was taken of them, after which the proceedings were resumed.

The evening reunion was held at the Merchantile Library Hall, which was well filled with delegates and spectators. The exercises consisted of singing and five minutes' speeches. Of the latter some twenty-five or thirty were made, several of them by pastors and gentlemen belonging to different denominations. Much enthusiasm was manifested by the audience, and the speakers carried genuine Christian feeling and spirit in their remarks.

The Convention has been eminently successful, and will be productive of great good to the cause of Sunday Schools throughout the land. The meeting adjourned at a late hour and the delegates will leave for their homes to-morrow.

Suit was brought in the Circuit Court to-day by Geo. E. Graham, and others, against Socrates Newman for one hundred and twenty thousand dollars, alleged to have been wrongfully obtained or withheld from the estate of Graham, who died in 1852, and of which Newman was administrator.

On Tuesday last, an old man named J. W. Lester, keeper of a wood yard opposite Island No. 18, half way between Cairo and Memphis, while on his return from supplying the steamer Lady Gay with wood, was boarded by a skiff containing two men named Moore and Burns, who robbed Lester of $100, the proceeds of his wood. As they were leaving the boat he shot Moore through the heart and Burns through the hips. Burns was taken ashore in a dying condition, and confessed that he belonged to a gang of pirates and thieves who not only practiced systematic piracy on the river, but robbery on land, and that they had murdered and thrown overboard from boats of different kinds four men.

MILWAUKEE.

Another Free Trade League Meeting—Speeches, &c.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

MILWAUKEE, November 4.—The Milwaukee Free Trade League had a meeting here to-night. The attendance was good considering the weather. Hon. E. J. Holton presided, and read a long list of Vice Presidents and Secretaries, composed of the principal citizens of the place. Mahlon Sands, Secretary of the New York Free Trade League, first spoke, reviewing briefly the objects and methods of the Society he represents.

Gen. Brinkerhoff, of Ohio, was then introduced, and for an hour deeply interested the audience in an exposition of the practical workings of the tariff, taking as an axiom that the duty upon an imported article increases the price of the home product. He demonstrated that for every dollar received by the Government from the tariff, the people paid twenty dollars to monopolists. Estimating the home product of lumber at one hundred and fifty millions of dollars per annum, the duty of twenty per cent. taxed the people thirty millions; and yet the Government received less than seven hundred thousand. Estimating the product of pig iron at one and a half tons, the duty of nine dollars taxed the people nearly fifteen millions, and gave the Government only one million. The duty on bar iron taxed the people twenty millions, and gave to the Government one million. The duty on railroad iron taxed the people fourteen millions, and gave to the Government one and a half millions. On these three articles of iron alone the people pay annually about forty-five millions of tax, of which the government gets five millions and the iron master forty millions. Thus, said the eloquent speaker, in a thousand ways the toiling millions are plundered to build up a few grasping monopolists.

Professor Perry was the next speaker. He was listened to with marked attention and frequently applauded. Prof. Perry has also, within a few days, addressed the students of Beloit University, and has visited the State University at Madison. He reports that free trade text books are used in those colleges and that nearly all the professors are free traders. Gen. Brinkerhoff also spoke on the 20th of October, at the State University of Michigan.

LOUISVILLE.

Funeral of Ex-Governor Wickliffe—Horse Thieves Worsted in a Fight.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

LOUISVILLE, November 4.—The remains of Ex-Governor Chas. A. Wickliffe, of Kentucky, reached here this morning and left at three o'clock this afternoon for Bardstown. In respect to his memory the Courts were adjourned and the members of the bar passed the usual resolutions of regret and sympathy.

A letter from southern Kentucky says that last Saturday night a band of forty mounted regulators, after stealing horses, went to the residence of M. J. Maddox, near Prestonville, and demanded that he and the negroes who worked on his farm should surrender. Mr. Maddox said that with his two sons he would defend himself. At this the armed regulators commenced firing upon the house. After a long fight the band was dispersed, though they declared they would return. In their flight, the rascals were compelled to leave two of their stolen horses behind.

Destructive Fire—Engine House and Apparatus Destroyed.

CONCORD, November 4.—The city of Nashua recently purchased a steam fire engine, and the location of the steamer causes some feeling among different sections of the city. This morning the steamer's house was set on fire. The engine, two hose carriages, with hose, and hook and ladder truck, were totally destroyed.

A cottage house and barn adjoining were seriously damaged. Loss to the city, $10,000. Insurance, $1,000.

KEY WEST.

Capture of the Steamer Lillian—One Hundred and Twenty of Her Crew Arrested—The Balance at Nassau.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

KEY WEST, Florida, Nov. 3.—The schooner W. H Cleara, from Nassau, arrived here this morning with one hundred and twenty men, who were taken from the Cuban steamer Lillian.

She was captured by the English authorities at Nassau while at anchor in the harbor.

The vessel is said to be badly injured and condemned as unseaworthy.

The balance of the Lillian's crew are at present at Nassau.

SAN FRANCISCO.

"Swartwouted"—Treasure—Emigrant Travel.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 4.—John C. Halley, Deputy Internal Revenue Collector at Oakland, is supposed to have absconded by the last Panama steamer. He is a defaulter to the Government to the amount of $16,000.

The treasure exported during October amounted to over two millions of dollars.

The emigrant travel over the Pacific railroad is rapidly increasing.

GENERAL NEWS.

THE Niles and New Lisbon Railroad is under extension to the Ohio river.

CINCINNATI is to have a new Merchants' Exchange. A company has been organized for the purpose of erecting the building, with a capital stock of $400,000.

NEW ORLEANS papers record that one visitor at a hotel in that city, when Jeff. Davis' name was inscribed upon the register, stooped and kissed it with the greatest fervor.

THE late Postmaster at New Orleans, W. M. Smallwood, is alleged to be a defaulter to the amount of $19,000, and proceedings have been instituted against him and his sureties.

A SPECIAL TRAIN on the Chicago and North Western Railway, on Monday last ran from Chicago to Omaha in seventeen hours and ten minutes, including stops—distance 472 miles.

THE late fearful disaster at Cincinnati, resulting from the explosion of coal oil, has called attention to the matter of storing large quantities of combustible material in that dense population.

GEN. GEO. A. CUSTAR was advertised to address a Democratic meeting in Leavenworth, Kansas, one night last week, but promptly authorized a denial of the statement. He is not in that business.

THE students of Bowdoin College have suggested to the Faculty that they could keep the Sabbath much more strictly were Monday morning recitations abolished. The recitations come before breakfast.

THE Free Will Baptists have voted to move the Theological School from New Hampton, N. H., to Buffalo, provided $100,000 can be secured for grounds and buildings, and $200,000 for endowment funds.

IT has been demonstrated by figures that, when the productive power of America is fully developed, the country will be able to feed four times as many persons as there are now on the face of the earth.

JURIES in Ohio, by a law passed at the last session of the Legislature, when considering penitentiary or capital cases are not allowed to separate until they have agreed upon a verdict, or have "agreed to disagree."

THE Superior Court, at Cincinnati, has decided that a man has such an interest in the widowhood of his wife as gives him the moral right to annex limitations to his bequests where she is made the recipient of his bounty.

THE Leavenworth (Kansas) Times says that the Indians, having learned to fear their Great Father's troops, are now for the most part peacefully submitting to the Quaker policy. It sums up the process of subjection thus: "After war, peace; after bullets, bread; after Custar, Quakers. 'Tis well."

ONE TENTH of the entire list of the Philadelphia Quarter Sessions cases at the present term are cases of homicide. The criminal calendar is made up of one hundred and twenty cases. The Grand Jury at its recent sitting was merciful to the county. It ignored an especially large number of pettifogging bills.

AT the recent special election of taxpayers of the city of Newburg, New York, Mrs Margaret McQuade, a widow owning property in the city, deposited her ballot with the inspectors, unquestioned and unchallenged. The lady is the first of her sex who has ever voted at a public election in Newburg.

THE general agent of the Franklin Telegraph Company says: "In every case where I have removed a man or boy and placed a lady in an office the receipts have increased largely, and the company have got the receipts." He declares, further, that he would be glad to fill all the places of the strikers with women.

TWENTY-TWO alleged "repeaters," illegal voters, were taken before Judge McCunn, at New York, on writs of habeas corpus, and immediately discharged, on the ground that the accused persons were improperly detained at the station-house, instead of being taken before a police magistrate sitting during election day.

THE hoop skirt business is languishing. The circumference of the article has dwindled from seventeen and seven-eighths feet down to nearly nothing. Many ladies have entirely abandoned the use of the steel. Hoops that once sold for four dollars are to be had to-day for seven levies. Such are the transmutations of fashion.

THE "wickedest man" excitement in New York is being imitated at London. There are now placards posted at Clapham, inviting worshipers to "Bethesda Chapel," and the inducements offered are in these words: "Ned Wright, who before his convertion was convicted three times of burglary, will deliver a Gospel address! Come and welcome! No collection!"

AT Providence, the other evening, just as Maggie Mitchell's company was ready to go on the stage, Mr. Sutton, who was to play the part of the old man "Mortimer," received a telegram that his mother was dead. The play went on, and soon the cheeks of Miss Mitchell and Mr. Sutton were bathed in genuine tears. Miss Mitchell's mother died only a short time since.

THE greater number of kerosene oil horrors are as much to be attributed to the ignorance and carelessness of the parties using the lamps, as to the bad quality of the oil. Many people handle lighted kerosene lamps as carelessly as they would vessels of water. With ordinary care and circumspection at least three-fourths of the kerosene lamp horrors might be averted.

THAT was a curious raid the New Orleans Police made on Wednesday last. They arrested about 100 bakers and seized 8,000 loaves of bread. This exhausted the bread market, and the local papers call it the battle of the light weights for the championship. The Police came out ahead, the bakers being fined $25 to $50 each, and their bread being confiscated.

THERE has been more real progress in agriculture in Georgia, since the close of the war, than in any other branch of industry, and in knowledge of the soil, its capabilities and the more effective modes of developing its wealth with the least amount of labor, the planters have, within the period stated, made greater advances than they did in the twenty years preceding.

ONE of the most affecting incidents of the late flood in Vermont occurred at Brattleboro. Just before Friederich, who was lost, went over the dam and falls, two of his children were on the bank and saw their father on the fatal raft of lumber. Too young to understand the danger to which he was exposed, each in childish innocence hailed and cried to their father but an instant before he went down, "Good-bye, papa."

A NEW JERSEY preacher took for the subject of his Sabbath discourse the following: "The Divine Pluvina and Riverine Manifestations Exemplified in the Missions of Noah, Moses, Elias, John the Baptist, Christ, St. Cecilia, and St. Patrick, Columbus, William Penn, and St. Tammany. How shall they Culminate Diplomatically, under the Star Spangled Banner, that Righteousness shall Cover the Earth as the Waters Cover the Great Deep, through the entire Supercedure of the Commercial and War Marine by the Nautilus or International Gospel Fleets of the Family Yacht."

DR. CHARLES KIDD, an eminent English surgeon, in a recent letter to a London journal, thus nobly declares: "Chloroform, with all its subsequent reforms in surgery, was due to a gentleman in America taking laughing gas at a sixpenny public lecture for amusement, and knocking his shins against a seat while excited, which were cut and bled profusely, the remark being made by him that he felt no pain. To America all the glory of anaesthetics is decidedly due. But Wells and Morton, who have done as fine a thing as Harvey and Jenner, are curiously ignored in England, but not in all the world beside."

A CURIOUS incident happened at the Varieties Theatre, in New Orleans, one evening last week. In one of the beautiful scenes of "Red Light," the moon rises from the lake, over which its light ripples in a way almost true to nature. The moon by which this effect is produced, is constructed of a heavy copper box, On the occasion it was conducted on its slow, majestic ascent from the bosom of the black water until it disappeared in the lowering clouds above, when something gave way, and the moon coming down with a run on the stage carpenter's head, laid him out as flat as a grilled mackerel. A little cold water soon brought him to.

ABOUT three hundred Philadelphia "repeaters" made their appearance at New York on Tuesday for the purpose of taking part in the election, under the leadership of a notorious bruiser named Sam Josephs. A party of fifty voted in a body in the Fifth district for Norton, the Democratic candidate for Senator. Three of them were subsequently arrested, and it was developed that there were only three bona fide voters living in the house from which the party of fifty were registered. It was reported that the notorious Alderman McMullin was among the Philadelphia band, and instructions given to arrest him at any hazard if observed disturbing the public peace.

A GENUINE Stainer violin was recently sold in Vienna for three hundred and forty florins. The history of that violin is quite interesting. Count von Trautmansdorf, a celebrated personage at the court of the Emperor, Charles the VIIth, bought it of Jacob Stainer, paying thirty-five gold pieces down on it, and agreeing to pay him, during the term of his natural life, twenty francs a month, and to pay his expenses for a good dinner daily, and to furnish him every year a gold embroidered coat, two tuns of beer and twelve kegs of fruit. Stainer lived for sixteen years, so that the violin cost the Count about twenty-two thousand francs.

THE cafes in St. Mark's square, Venice, where Eugenie took her curacoa, are never shut up. There are no locks to the doors—no shutters to the windows. Some of them have been open since the days of the First Napoleon, having been closed only twice in all that time—once in 1848, and a second time in 1850, when they were cleared out by the police. These cafes are the centres of Venetian life. They are the drawing-rooms of the gentry and aristocracy—the parlors and club-rooms of the people. People receive visits and transact business at the cafes as if they were at home. Ladies and school-girls go there. Whole families sit down to coffee, and turn the piazza into a drawing-room, the band playing there at certain hours, and the whole beau mode of Venice passing through.

A CHICAGO paper thus describes a rare flower from a city conservatory: "We have a specimen of a flower of one of the most remarkable plants in the country—only one of the species in the West, if not in the country—the Philodendrum. Imagine an oblong, cream colored, open cup, springing from an open stem, widening in the centre and turning at the end into a twist, such as is seen in some shells, the whole of about eleven inches in length. In this vessel is an elongation of the stem, of the length and size of an ear of Yankee corn, and looking not unlike it, which is unsupported except at its base, the whole being one of the most remarkable specimens of the floral world that we have ever seen. The tree, which is about eight feet in height, has many of these flowers, and after the bud becomes visible a whole year elapses before it matures."

ON Sunday last, in the Congress-street M. E. Church, at Troy, N. Y., just as the pastor had concluded an address, smoke was discovered issuing from the registers, and immediately it was surmised that a fire was in progress in the room below. Presently a loud noise, caused by a stumbling individual, startled the congregation, and many supposing the floor to be giving away, a fearful and indescribable scene of confusion followed. An immediate rush was made for the door, and a large number of children present were in danger of being crushed to death. Some of the more quiet of the congregation stood upon their seats, endeavoring to calm the excitement, and as it became evident that the danger from fire was not immediate, some one struck up a familiar tune, which was taken up by the others, and during the singing partial quiet was restored, and a less expeditious egress of the audience took place.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

OFFICE:
GAZETTE BUILDING, 84 AND 86 FIFTH AV.

OFFICIAL PAPER
Of Pittsburgh, Allegheny and Allegheny County.

FRIDAY, NOV. 5, 1869.

THE Somerset Herald, edited by Senator SCULL, supports the general demand for the restoration of the spring elections.

THE PREMIUM ON GOLD still declines, slowly but very steadily. It is understood that the Treasury will put at least $10,000,000 more upon the market during the month. Evidently, the supply is, and will continue, in excess of the demand, and lower rates are looked for.

THE officers of the Treasury will recommend some important modifications in the present revenue system, mainly with a view to a more efficient collection of the public dues. Nor will these modifications be pressed, unless Congress shall indicate a disposition to interfere with the system as it now is.

THE Democratic party has won a splendid victory in New York. Their majority of 75,000 for Hoffman, last year, now shrinks to but 43,000 against SIGEL and only 39,000 against GREELEY. This is a serious case of political atrophy, and had better be considered in the Convention which proposes to fix things in Pennsylvania.

JUDAISM responds to the reformatory sentiment of the age, with marked innovations upon the doctrines and ritual which that Church has until now maintained inviolate through all the ages. A school has arisen, among the Hebrew Rabbis, which demands the substitution of the popular vernacular for the original tongue in the prayers of the Church, which recognizes various features of the ritual as typical and not practical, and which definitely surrenders the long-cherished expectations of the re-establishment of a temporal sovereignty. These recommendations are not yet generally received by the Israelites, but evidently gain ground.

IT is estimated that no less a sum than $625,500,000 is deposited with the banks for savings. Of this amount, the six States of New England, and New York, control $347,000,000, or more than half the total. These institutions are created by State authority, have a purely local field of operations, issue no bills for general circulation, and their business in no respect requires, suggests or even warrants any form of Federal interference. The regulation of savings-banks is strictly an affair of domestic police, which properly belongs only to the respective States which create them. These institutions are found to be always well managed, the instances of individual and public loss by the misconduct of their officers being among the rarest in our financial experience. We should, therefore, regard any proposition to place these banks under the supervision of the Federal authority as equally needless and unwise.

THE REPUBLICAN and semi-Republican press of New York are agreed upon the statement that at least twenty thousand illegal votes were polled in the city at Tuesday's election. And not a few of these journals concur in insisting that their registry law has contributed to this result by excluding the votes of honest citizens who are too indifferent to polities to trouble themselves with the duty of registration, and by the facilities which are found for the enrollment of fictitious names. The fault is probably rather in the administration of the law. Without the cordial support of the better-classes of citizens, no law, however wisely it may be conceived, can effect the good ends which its design may have in view. Registration in that great city is a delusion and a snare, only because there is neither pluck nor principle among the leading Republican politicians. A law which they have not the courage to enforce, or which they are willing to see trampled upon, in consideration of some small local or personal advantage to themselves, should be repealed at once, and the city abandoned to its own miserable self-government. There is no cure for the flagrant iniquities of New York city politics, until the better class of the citizens shall undertake the work for themselves. The remedy must come from within, if ever.

THE ELECTIONS.

The New Jersey Legislature is Democratic, as before. The New York State ticket is Democratic by not over 10,000 majority, which is about the same as last year. The complexion of the new Legislature is still a matter of doubt. The majority is claimed on both sides. Mr. Greeley's advice to dissatisfied, i. e. disappointed Republicans, to bolt from nominations which were not for every reason satisfactory, seems to have been generally followed in the rural districts, resulting in the loss of the Legislature, which we must regret, and in his own defeat which is a matter of no public consequence whatever. Opposition journals should find no more fault with the editor of the Tribune. They are now indebted to him for the one solitary comfort which they find in all the elections of '69. But for his mischievous influence, the entire year would present for them an unbroken record of political humiliation.

THE BEGINNING OF THE END.

The editor of the Elk county Gazette, the organ of the Democracy in that county, has become thoroughly disgusted with his party and in the last issue of that paper says:

> "We will support neither men nor measures simply because they bear the good old Democratic name; neither will we denounce measures which emanate from the Republican side, simply because of their origin. What we deem subversive of the interests of the people, we will emphatically denounce; whatever would redound to their benefit we will heartily advocate. We admire and revere pure and real principles of Democracy, but we assert that under the teachings of the unscrupulous demagogues, led and ruled by William A. Wallace and his clan, Pennsylvanians have imbibed anything but Democracy, and so long as a party permits itself to be so ruled, it is worthy and deserving of nothing but defeat; and the Democratic party has fought its last battle, unless a change be speedily effected. It will be sufficient for us to know that this great-brained, able demagogue advises or originates any scheme, and we will oppose it; for we believe that Wallace and political villainy are synonymous terms.
> "We will advocate a protective tariff; that home productions and native skill may find a worthy and full remuneration."

THE DEMOCRATIC FUTURE.

We were told, the other day, upon the authority of "a prominent Democrat," that his party would continue its policy of opposition to the principles of the reconstruction acts. We have repeatedly been informed, from other sources in the same quarter, that the party is to be maintained steadily in the unfriendly attitude which it assumed in July '68, and that nothing but success will be necessary to ensure the final ascendancy of the Democracy in the conduct of public affairs.

If this be courage, it is admirable, if a perverse obstinacy, lamentable, if a factious but unprofitable warfare against the established preponderance of wiser aims and a purer statesmanship in the National councils, it is rendered simply contemptible by the inflexible course of events.

Either it is true that our opponents can learn nothing from the constantly unvarying line of disasters which attend their policy, or they base their hopes, of an ultimate reversal of public opinion in their favor, upon some very solid and permanent although perhaps obscure foundation. If the latter, we fail to see it, and the people have, it is clear, not yet discovered it. Nor can the sharpest scrutiny discover to-day, in any part of the field of politics, one principle, deserving to be so called, or one measure in which a principle is involved, with which the Democratic party is solidly identified. Everywhere agreed as the party is, to oppose Republicanism, that opposition is neither a principle nor the shadow of one. Opposing reconstruction hereafter, it will contend with shadows, every substantial question having been finally adjudicated before the close of the year 1869. Nor would even that be an opposition which the Southern Democracy would permit. Nor is there any comforting hope for them in matters of finance. The payment of the public debt, through the means and in the channels now recognized, is the settled policy of the nation. As often as Democracy may make an issue against this, so often it will be rebuked, as it has always been, by the popular voice. And if ever any form of repudiation, direct or indirect, should appear likely to succeed under the organized action of the Democratic party, a rebellion in the party itself would promptly avert the danger.

Since this opposition has ceased to be a dangerous element in American politics, it is likely to become an amusing one in its vicious but impotent decrepitude. We are all curious to know how long it may yet survive, having outlived its usefulness, exhausted its vital forces, forfeited the popular respect, and irrecoverably lost its old prestige of success with the masses who once followed it.

Certainly, the Democratic future is not promising!

THE Marquis of Westminster, long known as the richest man in the world, is lately dead, and the new Lord is the richest man, while the old one is merely a poor corpse without a memory. Some rich men so fill the world with the odor of their benevolence or with the shadows of their great charities, that when they die, they leave behind them a void which the whole world feels and remembers; but the Marquis of Westminster, to the world at large, is the same, no matter what man may wear the coronet.

TRAUPMANN, the French murderer, is said to wish that his widow and family shall emigrate to America after his own decease, because they would not here "be a mark of scorn." This an exchange interprets as meaning that the murderer believes, in common with many Europeans, that this country is a sort of colony for thieves, convicts and criminals generally. This a matter that deserves the attention of our Government at home and of its representatives abroad. Time and again, in almost every one of the northern and central sovereignties of Europe, criminals, with influential friends or extenuating circumstances to plead for them, have been pardoned on condition of departing for and staying in America. That we should object to this practice as strenuously as we know how, can certainly not be denied. Of thieves and murderers, we have a very bounteous home crop, which renders us independent of, and unwilling to receive any foreign importations.

THERE is a great deal in situation, a fact which is not always remembered when it should be. On the condition of a man's mind depends his appreciation of outside occurrences. The "rattle of battle" is absolute silence to a deaf man; to the Sebastpolitans, Constantinople is a western metropolis, and in Colorado, Chicago is spoken of as an eastern city; to the denizen of New York or Pittsburgh, the quietness and lack of bustle in the streets of Philadelphia is very noticeable, while doubtless the citizen of a quiet little town in the interior would have his nocturnal repose disturbed by the racket in that city of Brotherly Love. In fact, almost every statement must be gauged by the surroundings of its maker, so that when Parton said Pittsburgh looked like "Hell with the lid off," we must remember how recently he had left the hub of the Yankee universe. So when we hear of any body calling these cities of ours an earthly paradise, we know they must have come from Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville or some other of those less lovely western towns.

IN Philadelphia, two theatres, one managed by Mrs. John Drew and the other by Laura Keene, are running a succession of the leading standard comedies, old and new, to houses crowded night after night with audiences of the highest character. We believe this is significant of what would be done in other cities if the attempt were made in the same way. Great pains have been taken to make the two auditoria as comfortable and safe as possible, the companies have been well chosen and are composed of accomplished artists who understand their business and attend to it, knowing that a vulgarism, a gag, or an imperfect knowledge of what they have to do would not be tolerated for a moment. The scenery and costumes are inteligently selected and used, and the consequence is that the audiences which come are as large and as enthusiastic as those which witnessed the ballets and comic operas. It has always been our opinion that good and standard comedies would be as generally successful as the spectacular pieces of the day if as much money and skill were expended upon them, and this has now been proved to be the case in the Quaker City.

SOME MEN, ordinarily very respectable and well behaved, seem to lose all the cultivation and training of years, all of their self-respect and dignity of manner, the minute the doors of the supper-room are thrown open at any evening party where they may be guests. There is no real necessity for men pushing, crowding, elbowing and behaving in a generally clod-hopperish manner, merely because coffee, oysters and ices are spread before them. We have seen a drove of pigs rush for the feed trough, piling up on each other's shoulders, and some of the front row up to their knees in victuals: we always pardoned them, because they were hogs and couldn't know that the provision was plenty for all and the time ample if they would only take it. Excuse is made that the men who thus rival the pigs do so in order to be able to secure the choicest delicacies of the feast for the ladies whom they serve That won't do at all. There is rarely a woman who wouldn't sacrifice even her share of Muscatel grapes or marons glace rather than believe herself to be the cause that her escort should forget to be a gentleman and act instead like a boor.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

GEORGE ELLIOT'S Novels. Scenes in Clerical Life and Silas Mariner. Romolo. Published by Harper & Brothers, New York.

The elevated tone of George Elliot's novels make them worthy of the library of any person, and also suitable for the most refined family circles. This cannot be said of many of the works of fiction these modern days. While these volumes are widely different in character, they serve to show the remarkable genius and creative powers of the author. Commendation, however, of the matter, simply, is unnecessary. We call attention to the beautiful specimen of book making, and especially that the series of five volumes can be purchased for the trifling sum of seventy-five cents per volume.

THE PRINCIPLES OF PSYCHOLOGY. By John Bascom, Professor in Williams College, author of "Political Economy," &c. Published by G. P. Putnam & Son. For sale by R. S. Davis & Co., Pittsburgh.

It has been well remarked by a distinguished author that the progress in philosophy is slow, and open to sharp criticism for the defects which mark its history. But it should be borne in mind that if mistakes have been made, and contradictions appear in the theories promulgated, that great obstacles lie in the path of progress. The object of Prof. Bascom has been to bring out new points, and place the subject in a more consistent form, and pruning everything in the system essentially alien to its principles. In the part of Intuitive Philosophy there is a completeness and proportion that will be appreciated by the student. We think that the work will be regarded as it should be, valuable by thinking minds and students in this department of science. Such a work was needed. The work is divided into three sections, preceded by a brief introductory chapter. 1. The Intellect. 2. The Feelings. 3. The Will.

HER MAJESTY'S TOWER. Second Series. By William Hepworth Dixon, editor of the "Athenæum," and author of "New America," "Spiritual Wives," etc. Published by J. B. Lippincott & Co., Philadelphia. For sale by R. S. Davis & Co., Pittsburgh.

This volume is unlike the preceding one in many respects. It contains the story of the Anglo-Spanish conspiracy, and also very many interesting things connected with the Tower, that are thrillingly entertaining. The interest, however, of the volume is general rather than local, and presents threads of national life woven together by a master hand. These stories are the product of the gifted author's pen for more than twenty years, and it must be conceded they are so gracefully worded that they appear like pictures of fancy, though hung on the stern facts of the nation's history.

A GREEK GRAMMAR FOR BEGINNERS. By William Henry Waddell, Professor of Ancient Languages in the University of Georgia. Published by Harper & Brothers, New York.

Few will question what the author assumes that this work is simplified as much as it is possible, to master a difficult language, like Greek, but after all, it will require nerve and patience, to memorize the grammar, from cover to cover. The author, however, has smoothed the way towards an easy acquisition of the language, and he is entitled to the thanks of students. The pruning and cutting out of unnecessary matter, will tend to aid the new beginner, and we therefore most heartily commend the work, as being a valuable aid in the study of Greek.

NOVEMBER MAGAZINES.

The present number of Harper's completes the thirty-ninth volume of this grand old monthly. Notwithstanding the multiplication of magazines within a few years, it retains its hold upon the public. While its general character has not been materially changed, it is progressive and fully abreast of the times. The best writers and artists are brought into requisition to cater to the lovers of such literature. Special attention is given to the departments of popular Sceiences and Industrial Arts. The number of this month contains valuable papers, profusely illustratsd, namely: "Beast, Bird, and Fish," "Mountaineering on the Pacific," and "A Health Trip to the Tropics". Installments of "A Brave Lady," and "My Enemy's Daughter" appear growing interesting as they proceed. "The New Timothy" is concluded, a story of much interest. Two pretty stories are to be found in "Elizabeth Heifer" and "Francis Palmer". The short article "The Jannissaries," is timely. "Border Remiscence," is full of points and daring. Much valuable information may be found in "Our Digestion and Food". The various departments are well sustained this month. Now is a good time to subscribe for this excellent monthly.

Lippincott is always readable, and never fails to present some good articles. Trollope's new novel, "The Vicar of Bullhampton," absorbs considerable space, but none too much, judging from the interest aroused. "Beyond the Breakers," still is popular and readable. "Wear and Tear" is a substantial paper, full of common sense views, advocating relaxation in connection with mental effort. Morris' article on "Fuel" contains information of a practical sort. Few can read "Murder Most Foul" without feeling sympathetic. The duelling article is not worth reading, beyond its historical merit. "The Great Flood" and "Jaffa to Jerusalem," are entertaining. Tender pity will be awakened by the reading of the sketch of Prentice. As usual, "Our Monthly Gossip," and "Literature of the Day," are capital. Taking the number throughout, it is an advance on previous numbers.

Our Young Folks for this month, is a superb number, both as to the character of the articles and the illustrations. The principal papers are entertaining, as well as instructive, and the illustrations are life-like and executed with considerable finish. We doubt not many an old 'un has learned lessons in this year's issue worthy to be stored away. "The Story of the Bad Boy" is still intensely interesting, and the "Letters of William Henry" are par excellence, for young people to model after. The publishers intend to keep Aldrich, Parton, Mrs. Agassiz and other charming writers, busy for the subscribers of 1870.

Putnam's Monthly opens with a paper devoted to the "Gateways of the Pole," by Prof. T. B. Maury, that will command attention, and also much criticism. Spencer's "Lady Cinella" is continued. The selection of letters by Mr. Putnam is a rich contribution, and it will be highly valued by many readers. The letters give a glimpse of the true nature of distinguished authors that is rarely obtained of public men. "Hellenic Nationality and the East," and "The Radical Duke," will repay reading. Many will enjoy Tent life in Kamschatka. Some suggestive thoughts are embodied in the paper, "The New Fuel." Kemball's romance, "To-day," occupies considerable space. The departments, Brevities, Literature at Home, Fine Arts, Table Talk, etc, are, as usual, chatty, piquant. Putnam offers great inducements to subscribers for 1870, namely, to send free until the close of this year.

The Atlantic contains quite a goodly number of articles of a substantial type, and of a practical sort, that is enjoyable. "The Small Sins of Congress" will provide ammunition for those who desire to probe corruptionists. The facts are stern and appalling. The article on "Earthquakes," is timely and will be read with relish. Mrs. Agassiz's "Dredging Excursion in the Gulf Stream," reads like romance, and yet is brimful of useful knowledge. Just now the problem of "Human Life" is claiming the attention of many minds. Howell treats of a "Pedestrian Tour" in his usual happy style. "The Brick Moon," by that genius, Rev. E. E. Hale, will repay reading. Freeman's "Mohammed," is a thoughtful paper. The closing papers will repay reading and possess decided merit.

The Galaxy opens with "Susan Fielding" and a good instalment of "Put Yourself in His Place," both absorbing and entertaining. "Prince Suwarof" is of thrilling interest and so natural. The paper on "English Universities" is well handled by Justin McCarthy, an authority. Attention is called to the startling paper entitled "Imperialism in America." Many of the Galaxy readers will thank Dr. Dalton for the paper "How the Blood Circulates." Richard Grant White furnishes another of his sterling papers on the "Play of the Period." It is a paper of decided merit, because of its bold utterances. It is hardly necessary to speak of the departments at the close, occupying about twenty pages, as they are conducted with signal ability.

Hours at Home for this month contains several articles worthy of note. The first, "Sultan Singah Scimetar," a bit of racy reading. Towl's "Scraps from my Autograph Book," are full of historical lore, and in striking contrast "Crime and and its Punishment in the East," which reveals appalling facts. Much that will surprise, as well as instruct, may be found in "Marriages among Men of Genius." "Compton Fairs," and "Sunny Bank Papers," occupy considerable space. "Books and Reading," is valuable to the thoughtful, as the suggestions are timely. The editorial articles at the close of the number are capital.

The Sunday Magazine, announced by J. B. Lippincott & Co., of Philadelphia, ought to command a large circulation, worthy of the outlay of the publisher. We have not, however, seen a number since the new arrangement, but if favored with its visits monthly, we can write intelligently and judge better of its excellencies.

LITERARY WEEKLIES.

Harper's Weekly is a marvel among the large family of literary weeklies. It is conducted with rare tact and good judgment. Events are narrated and illustrated, in a way to command admiration. Its editorials are high toned, and are worthy of the high reputation they have attained. The useful and the brilliant commingle throughout each number. It is well worth the price, and may be safely introduced into every family circle.

Every Saturday contains articles of solid value, as well as of the lighter-vein of fiction. Most of the selections are made from European publications, and give the cream of them, too. Its variety and tone commends it to the lovers of a good literature. For travelers, and those who have little time to read, it is a capital companion to beguile away dull care.

Hearth and Home is a treasure, because of its specialties. It combines information, ornamental as well as practical. It is not surprising that its circulation is growing so rapidly. It seems to occupy a field by itself, and fills a want, long desired, and needed, in the domestic circle.

BOOKS ANNOUNCED.

HARPER & BROTHERS, New York, announce the following new books in press and nearly ready: "The Polar World," "Old Testament Shadows of New Testament Truths," "The Andes and the Amazon," "Haydn's Dictionary of Dates," "Romance of Spanish History," "Mrs. Hale's Woman's Record," etc.

The case is one of unusual interest, and will excite very general attention.

THE remains of Wm. F. Leech, Esq., were interred in Laurel Hill Cemetery, Philadelphia, on Tuesday. The funeral was attended by a large number of leading citizens, including some from Pittsburgh and other portions of the State, besides friends from New York and other places The pall bearers were H. H. Houston, J. Edgar Thompson, A. J. Drexel, Thomas A. Scott, J. H. Chambers, Mr. Harris, George W. Childs, Mr. Fry, Hon. Wm. A. Porter and General Cass, Mr. Black and Mr. Thaw, of Pittsburgh.

A LETTER has been received in Philadelphia, purporting to come from Jimmy Haggerty, the scamp who escaped from custody while being conveyed from the prison to the court room, in obedience to a writ of habeas corpus. He represents that he is sojourning in Kentucky, gives an amusing account of his trip, and returns thanks to Alderman McMullen and others for their kind assistance, also to Sam Josephs for furnishing him with a free pass. The detectives are bothered, some starting to Montreal to look for the fugitive, and others believing him to be still in Philadelphia.

THE Greensburg Herald is informed by Mr. Nathan McGrew, of Rostraver township, Westmoreland county, that he has an apple tree growing in front of his door which was planted 1767—one hundred and two years ago. It is one of nineteen which were brought over the mountains on a pack-horse, in the fall of that year and planted by Daniel Hamond. The ground was then known as Hamond's Park, and the deer destroyed all but this one. It is a sound, healthy tree yet—was loaded with apples this year,—and appears to have vigor enough to live another century.

IN Huntington last week two young men named Miles Hampson and Howard Crewett renewed an old quarrel, and after some wrangling concluded to "fight it out" in a back yard. They went at it, and in a few minutes Hampson returned to a store where he had been previously, with his head severely cut, as he alleged by a blow received from Crewett with some instrument. The wound was dressed and no great inconvenience experienced from it for a few days, but inflamation of the brain finally set in and death ensued. Crewett was arrested and after a hearing before Judge Taylor was admitted to bail in $5000 to answer at Court.

THE Legislature, at its last session, enacted that "all deeds and conveyances shall be recorded in the office for the recording of deeds, in the county where such lands or hereditaments are lying and being, within six months after the execution of such deeds and conveyances, and every such deed and conveyance that shall, at any time after the publication hereof, be made and executed, and which shall not be proved and recorded as aforesaid, shall be adjudged fraudulent and void against any subsequent purchaser or mortgagee for valuable consideration, unless such deed or conveyance be recorded as aforesaid, before the proving and recording of the deed or conveyance under which such subsequent purchaser or mortgagee shall claim."

THE Altoona Vindicator tells "a strange but true tale," as follows: A young man giving his name as Harry Stewart arrived in Altoona, not long since, in a state of complete destitution, and called upon Rev. Mr. Guyer, to whom he stated that his parents had died in Idaho, leaving him alone and penniless; that they had come from England and moved to Idaho when none but Indians infested that territory, and that he had never enjoyed any advantages of education, save what his mother had given him. He had heard in Idaho that in Pennsylvania orphans were given education for nothing, and he desired to reach Harrisburg to obtain an entrance to one of the State institutions of learning. A pass to that place was procured for him, and he was sent on his way, those who had been willing to befriend him soon forgetting all about him in the busy cares of life. While in conversation with Mr. Guyer, the boy had stated that his mother had left him some papers which she declared were very valuable, but which he could not read. When in Harrisburg a sudden thought struck him, and he entered the law office of Mr. R. Minnich, to whom he showed his papers. A brief examination of the documents showed the latter their true nature, and he at once telegraphed to the British Minister at Washington, who in turn telegraphed to the American Minister at London, and in a short time answer was returned that young Stewart was heir to an entailed fortune amounting to $53,000,000 in gold, deposited in the Bank of London, and equal to about $77,000,000 in American currency. This fortune has been lying in the Bank for some six generations, and has thus increased to its present vast proportions. Young Stewart's identity as the legal heir to this vast possession, has been fixed beyond doubt, and he will receive the first installment of about $3,000,000 during the present month.

THE Edinburgh Review cannot consider Count Bismarck as a really great statesman. He is a first-rate diplomatist and negotiator. No man can captivate more adroitly those he wants to win; nobody knows better to strike at the right moment. His personal courage is great, physically as well as morally. He is a capital companion in society, witty, genial, sparkling in conversation. His private life is pure; nobody has accused him of having used his high position for his pecuniary advantage. But by the side of these virtues the darker shades are not wanting. Everything is personal with him; he never forgets a slight. His strong will degenerates frequently into absurd obstinacy. Driven into a strait, his courage becomes the reckless daring of the gambler who stakes everything on one card. His contempt of men is profound. Few things or persons exist at which he would not venture a sneer.

EXCITING SPORT.—The example set by Sir. Samuel W. Baker, as an elephant hunter in Ceylon, has been followed by many Englishmen, who have become tired of the modern sport of shooting pheasants, partridges and grouse, almost as tame as barn door fowls. A party of these modern Nimrods recently arrived at Grahamstown, Cape of Good Hope, after an eighteen months excursion to the country lying around Lake Ngami. They had shot 82 elephants, 11 white rhinoceroses, 37 black rhinoceroses, 6 giraffes, 28 buffalos, 4 koodoos, 9 oryx, 17 elands, 21 sea-cows. 2 leopards, 10 lions and great quantities of smaller game. Their wagons were heavily loaded with the tusks, horns, skins, &c., of these animals.

THE SHIVERING SEASON.

It is impossible to suppose that any human being can consider an attack of Fever and Ague a light visitation. And yet thousands act as if such a calamity was of no consequence: while thousands who are actually suffering from the distressing complaint neglect to adopt the certain means of cure. It ought to be known in every locality subject to this scourge, or which is infested with remittent fever, or any other epidemic produced by malaria, that HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS taken in advance or at the commencement of the unhealthy season, will fortify the system against the atmospheric poison which generates these distempers. This admirable invigorant—harmless, agreeable, and possessing rarer medicinal virtues than any other tonic at present known, will break up the paroxysms of intermittent or remittent fever in from forty eight hours to ten days. Such is the universal testimony from districts where periodical fevers have been combatted with this powerful vegetable Cholagogue. In a thievish neighborhood wise men bar their doors and windows, yet strange to say if the same neighborhood happens to be pervaded by aerial poison they seldom take the trouble to put their bodies in a state of defence against the subtile enemy. Shivering victims endeavoring in vain to warm their blue hands over the fire, or consuming with the fever that follows the chill, remember that HOSTETTER'S BITTERS is an absolute, speedy and infallible specific for your distressing malady.

7-40 GOLD BONDS.

W. BAILEY LANG & CO.
Offer a limited amount of the
CHICAGO, DANVILLE
AND
Railroad Company's FIRST MORTGAGE
Sinking Fund Bonds,
At 95 and ACCRUED INTEREST.

The whole issue is $2,500,000, or less than $18,000 per mile of completed road, and is secured by First Mortgage upon 140 miles of Railroad, including equipment, franchises, and all present and future acquired property of the Company.

This loan, together with the $2,100,000 Capital Stock already taken, furnishes ample means to build and equip the entire line, including rolling stock and every requisite outfit of a first-class railroad. Fifty-five miles, from Chicago to Momence, are completed and in operation, and much of the remaining portion is in a state of forwardness.

These Bonds are for $1,000 each, have forty years to run, and pay 7 per cent. semi-annual interest in gold, or nearly ten per cent. in currency.

BOTH PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST
Are payable in New York city, in UNITED STATES GOLD COIN.

These Bonds offer peculiar advantages to investors. The holders of Government securities or Pacific Railroad Bonds may exchange them at a handsome profit. The holder of $10,000 in Governments may exchange them for $12 000 in these bonds, and receive $500 to $600 cash on the exchange. Then instead of six per cent gold interest on $10,000, and a still lower rate after their maturity, he will receive 7 per cent, gold, for forty years, on $12,000—a difference in profit that will in the end nearly equal the face of the bond.

The holder of a Pacific Railroad bond may sell—perhaps at a small loss—and re-invest in a bond of this road and receive 7 per cent. gold interest for forty years, instead of 6 per cent. gold for thirty years. The extra one per cent. profit on his investment would, as a sinking fund, at compound interest, amount to the par value of the bond itself.

Starting at Chicago, the C., D. & V. Railroad extends in a southerly direction to the eastern counties of Illinois, the whole adjacent country being well settled and unsurpassed in richness of soil by any of the prairie States. For nearly one-third its length, the road passes through that will abundantly supply Chicago with the best coal at a low price, for generations to come. It brings the CELEBRATED BRAZIL MINES, whose coal is unequalled for the manufacture of iron, ninety miles nearer to the city of Chicago, which henceforward may become the greatest iron manufacturing and distributing center in the country.

The road receives a large volume of freight as fast as it is opened for business, and a very moderate estimate upon its local business only, gives a net revenue equal to nearly

THREE TIMES THE SUM
Required for the Interest and Sinking Fund
upon the ENTIRE ISSUE OF ITS BONDS. (See pamphlet.)

The through traffic must add considerably to this, as the road forms part of the

from Chicago, via Terre Haute, Vincennes, Evansville and Nashville, to New Orleans, Mobile and Pensacola.

Pamphlets in more complete detail, with maps, can be had of us on application, or of our Agents in Pittsburgh, S. McCLEAN & CO., 75 Fourth Avenue.

Adhering to our positive rule never to offer anything for sale which we do not ourselves believe to be good, we add that we have personally examined this entire line of road, finished and projected, as well as the country through which it runs, and its full character and capacity for verifying the foregoing estimates; the result of which is, that we offer these securities with every confidence in their full worth and soundness.

DR. WHITTIER
CONTINUES TO TREAT ALL private diseases, Syphilis in all its forms, all urinary diseases, and the effects of mercury are completely eradicated; Spermatorrhea or Seminal Weakness and Impotency, resulting from self-abuse or other causes, and which produces some of the following effects, as blotches, bodily weakness, indigestion, consumption, aversion to society, unmanliness, dread of future events, loss of memory, indolence, nocturnal emissions, and finally so prostrating the sexual system as to render marriage unsatisfactory, and therefore imprudent, are permanently cured. Persons afflicted with these or any other delicate, intricate or long standing constitutional complaint should give the Doctor a trial; he never fails.
A particular attention given to all Female complaints, Leucorrhea or Whites, Falling, Inflammation or Ulceration of the Womb, Ovaritis, pruritis, Amenorrhoea, Menorrhagia, Dysmenorrhoea, and Sterility or Barrenness, are treated with the greatest success.
It is self-evident that a physician who confines himself exclusively to the study of a certain class of diseases and treats thousands of cases every year must acquire greater skill in that specialty than one in general practice.
The Doctor publishes a medical pamphlet of fifty pages that gives a full exposition of venereal and private diseases, that can be had free at office or by mail for two stamps, in sealed envelopes. Every sentence contains instruction to the afflicted, and enabling them to determine the precise nature of their complaints.
The establishment, comprising ten ample rooms, is central. When it is not convenient to visit the city, the Doctor's opinion can be obtained by giving a written statement of the case, and medicines can be forwarded by mail or express. In some instances, however, a personal examination is absolutely necessary, while in others daily personal attention is required, and for the accommodation of such patients there are apartments connected with the office that are provided with every requisite that is calculated to promote recovery, including medicated vapor baths. All prescriptions are prepared in the Doctor's own laboratory, under his personal supervision. Medical pamphlets at office free, or by mail for two stamps. No matter who have failed, read what he says. Hours 9 A. M. to 8 P. M. Sundays; 12 M. to 3 P. M. Office, No. 9 WYLIE STREET, (near Court House,) Pittsburgh.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, November 3, 1869.

Government bonds for the new issues remained steady to-day at about 115¼@115½, but 62s declined one per cent. at the first board, but gradually advanced again to 115½. The market in sympathy with gold, however, is very dull and does not even respond to the firmer tone of the gold market. Buyers are few and sellers quite plenty at every rise.

Gold looked very dull, opening at 127, declining to 126⅝, advancing to 127 and closing between 126¾ and 126⅞. The short interest is very large and a sharp rally may set in at any moment, although it is most likely that a point nearer 125 will be reached in the declining scale.

Stocks are stronger and higher; the market is nevertheless only supported by the large holders and the covering of the short interest, which is always largely increased at any advance. The ultimate tendency for stocks is, however, for lower prices, and a general settling down of values.

Money keeps on increasing in stringency, with but a poor prospect for an immediate relief; no long paper can be discounted at any of the regular discounting establishments, and outside paper has to submit to high rates of interest.

Business moderately active.

Quotations as received by Ph. R. Mertz: Gold, 126¾; Silver, 122; Eighty-one's, 117¼; Five Twenties, 1862, 115¾; do 1864, 112⅝; do 1865, 113⅝; do 1865, Consols, 115¼; do 1867, 115½; do 1868, 115¼; Ten Forties, 107¼; Adams Express Company, 56¾; Merchants Union Express Company, 9¼; American Express Company, 36½; Western Union Telegraph Company, 36¼; New York Central, 81¼; Reading, 96⅜; Pittsburgh Fort Wayne & Chicago, 85; Ohio & Mississippi, 25½; Michigan Southern, 90¼; Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 85; Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific, 104⅜; Chicago & North Western, 71½; Chicago & North Western Perferred, 86½; Erie, 28¼.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, November 4, 1869.

There is a continued complaint among our merchants generally in regard to dull and hard times, and what is worse still there is but little prospect of any immediate improvement. The grain trade continues dull and languishing which is owing in part to the uncertainty in regard to values, as operators generally seem disposed to keep aloof, until such time, as prices become a little more settled. And what is true of grain is equally true of flour; in the absence of any inquiry for shipment the demand is entirely local, and with a strong competition for local business, margins, if such they can be called, are very small. The receipts of all kinds of produce are liberal and the supply is fully up to the demand, and while there is a fair volume of business in the aggregate, trade, generally is not what it ought to be at this particular season of the year.

APPLES—Continue to arrive freely and with a supply ahead of the demand, the market is easier; we now quote at $2@3,50 for fair to choice.

BUTTER—The stock is unusually large and with a light demand the market is reported very dull and prices tending downward. Prime to choice roll 30@33 cts.

BEANS—$2,50@3 per bushel.

BUCKWHEAT FLOUR—4½@5 cents.

CHESTNUTS—Dull and lower—sales reported at $5,00 per bushel.

CIDER—Is selling at from $7 to $9 per bbl, according to quality and size of bbl.

CRANBERRIES—Sales at $9@12 as to quality, and $15@16 for "Sackett's" Belle berries.

CARBON OIL—Is firm with but comparatively little offering as the stock in this market is pretty well reduced; we continue to quote at 31@31½, in a jobbing way.

DRIED FRUIT—Is quiet and unchanged. Apples, 8@10 cts; Peaches, 9@10 for quarters, and 12@13 for halves.

EGGS—Sales at 30@32.

FEATHERS—In better demand and higher, and we now quote at 85@90 to the trade and the usual advance for small lots in store.

FLOUR—There is nothing new in the flour market—no improvement to note in the demand and no change in prices. We continue to quote good to choice winter wheat brands at $6,00@6,50.

GRAIN—Wheat is quiet and unchanged, $1,15@1,18 for prime red. Oats still quoted at 46@47 on wharf and track, and 48@50 in store. Rye is dull and nominal at 90 to 95, the outside figure for prime Pennsylvania and Ohio. Sales of new ear corn at 75 and old at 93@95, that is on wharf or track. Barley is dead—there are no established quotations. Buyers are disposed to hold off expecting lower prices.

HAY—Is being sold from country wagons at $15@22 per ton.

HUSKS—Sales at 3 cents per pound.

HOMINY—Sales at $6,00@6,50 per bbl.

LIME—Sales of Cleveland white lime at $2@2 25 per bbl.

LARD OIL—Sales of extra No. 1, at $1,42@1,45, and No. 2 at $1,05@1,08.

ONIONS—Sales at $2,50@3,00 per bbl, the outside figure for choice.

POTATOES—Sales Baltimore sweets at $3,50@4 per bbl, and prime Jerseys at $4,50. Peach Blows 50 cents per bushel.

POULTRY—Sales of live chickens, by the coop, at 50@55 cts per pair.

PROVISIONS—There is not much inquiry for Bacon, the season being almost over, and there is not much stock in this market. Hogs still keep up in prices, 9¾@11c as to quality.

SEEDS—Sales of flaxseed at $2,30, and but little offering in this market. Timothy Seed is dull and nominal at $4@4¼. Nothing doing in clover seed.

SALT—Is firmer with sales of car load lot at $1,85 per bbl.

STRAW—Sales at $12@15 per ton.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, November 4, 1869.

The oil business is devoid of any thing really new or very important. The market is firm but inactive, strong, but devoid of stability, and withal in a very peculiar condition. Refiners do not seem disposed to sell, being apprehensive of a still further advance, while after all they have but little if any more margin now than they had two or three weeks since, as crude has advanced with refined, and then there is the advance in freights. As was expected, the shipments have fallen off very materially since the advent of this month, and it is not to be expected that the aggregate shipments for November will be anything like that of October, and it is pretty certain that the exports from Pittsburgh in 1869 will not begin to reach those of 1868.

In the City Article of the London Times of October 16th appeared a communication from a dealer in petroleum, who insisted that the greater portion of the refined oils imported from America has been found to be unsafe from its explosive character. A more unjust imputation could not have been ventured upon. It is well known to the American trade that no refined oils leave our ports which do not bear the government inspection, standing fairly above the legal igniting point. The difficulty in the foreign markets comes from the cupidity of the dealers purchasing for consumption, who like too many parties in our own domestic trade, mingle the commercial article with its cheaper but dangerous products. A dangerous practice, which cannot be prevented in New York, is known to obtain equally in the English and continental markets, and, in either case, is wholly outside of the regular wholesale trade, which is confined, as between the two countries, to an article of unexceptional quality.

CRUDE.

The Crude market was unusually active to day, the sales being unusually large, and compared with yesterday, prices have still further advanced. Sales 1,000 buyer 1869 (40@46) at 16¾; 2,000 seller November at 16¾; 1,000 spot (40@46) at 17; 1,000 November, (40@46) at 16½; 1,000 seller 1869 (40@46) at 16; 1,000 seller November 16¾; and 1,000 buyer 1869, on cars at Venango City at $6,30, and 5,000 seller 1869 (40@47) at $6,15.

REFINED.

Market quiet but firm and prices are strong and fully sustained. November is quoted at 36 bid; November and December 35@35¼; and December at 34¼@34½.

PITTSBURGH LIVE STOCK MARKET.

PENN'A CENTRAL STOCK YARDS, THURSDAY, Nov. 4, 1869.

CATTLE.

There has been a regular panic in the Cattle market this week, one of the worst experienced this year, and, compared with last week, prices have dropped from a ½ to ¾ of a cent per pound. The yards have been full and overflowing all week, and this together with continued unfavorable advices from New York, had a very depressing effect, and those who were so very unfortunate as to have cattle here this week lost heavily. The losses incurred in many cases would reach $30@50 per car load, and we heard one man say that he would lose $500 on three car loads. Taking it all in all this has been the worst market of the season; this was the general verdict rendered by operators, and many of those who sold here this week will go home sick of the stock business and we have an idea, that some of them at least will not be back again soon.

As already intimated, prices are considerably lower than they were last week, and, as will be seen by reference to the report of sales, there were but very few sold above 6¼@6¾, though an extra drove might have brought 6¾@7. Light cattle sold ot all kinds of prices, ranging from 3 to 4½@5.

SHEEP.

The sheep market, also, received, to use a common expression among stock men, a "blackeye" this week, and, as in the case of cattle, prices are considerably lower, and even at the decline the supply was in excess of the demand and especially was the case in regard to the common grades. Prime fat 90 pound sheep, which last week brought 5 or 5¼, sold this week at 4@4¼, and good 100 lb averages cannot be quoted above 4½. Common stock dull and hard to sell at any price, as buyers for this particular class of stock are very scarce. The market, upon the whole, is pronounced the hardest of the season, and as in the case of cattle, sellers mostly lost money.

HOGS.

The hog market keeps remarkably steady and there has been for some time past, a remarkable uniformity in prices. The supply has been about equal to the demand for several week past, and as a consequence, prices have varied but very little. We continue to quote Philadelphia Hogs at 10½@11, and York Hogs at 9¾@9¾. Our packers have made no movement as yet, nor is it likely that they will so long as prices keep up.

RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to recede slowly at this point, with scant 30 inches in the channel. Weather yesterday was warmer but as we are now having what is familiarly termed Indian Summer, the prospects for rain and a rise are by no means encouraging.

The Collosal was to have left St. Louis on Tuesday for Arkansas river, with Capt. M. A. Cox in command.

The Belle, from Memphis, and Camelia, from St. Louis, were due last night, and will return again to-day at noon.

Capt. Reed, thinks that one Captain is sufficient for one boat.

—The H. M. Shreve arrived at St. Joseph, last Saturday, with that portion which was saved of the cargo of the sunken Sulley.

—The Sallie left Cincinnati for Louisville on Tuesday and the Kate Putnam was to have left there for New Orleans on Wednesday.

—Captain Donaldson, of the steamer Great Republic, has adopted the suggestion of the St. Louis Times, and will hereafter leave with his agents a duplicate passenger list.

—Miss Sallie Phillip's, of Cario, was married at the Stokes House in Mound City, a few days since, to a Mr. Griffen, an officer on the snagboat Abert. It was a runaway match, the parents of the bride objecting to it.

—Wm. H. Chick, one of the clerks of the Stonewall, it is asserted, was proceeding to the ladies cabin when that boat was burning, in order to assist them to escape, when the burned floor cracked beneath his feet and he sank into the firey mass below.

—A correspondent of the Memphis Appeal writes from Vicksburg: The war between Capt. Tom. Leathers and John Cannon waxes hot. Cannon has the advantage just now with the Paragond and the two Lees; but the new Natches and Dexter will alter the complexion of things when they get on the track. Capt. Leathers has many friends who wish him to hold his own and succeed.

—The Evansville Journal gives this to the St. Louis Democrat: The Democrat seems to take special pleasure in twitting "we uns" on the Ohio on the scarcity of water that prevails. The people on the Ohio drink water. If they would change their drink to whisky, we would have plenty of water. If the people on the Mississippi would exchange their drink, that river would be exhausted of water. What is the prospect of ice around there, Democrat?

—We clip the following from the Cincinnati Commercial of Wednesday: Capt. Geo. W. Reed arrived from Pittsburgh yesterday, in command of the Kate Putnam, announced for New Orleans to-day. Capt. Reed having retired from the command, returned to Pittsburgh in last night's train. Capt. Jno. L. Rhodes, a veteran builder and commander, displays his broad pennant on the Kate to-day, and will put her through to New Orleans, and back in gallant style.

—The Republican, says: The Stonewall, recently destroyed by fire, intended to have run as a regular Tuesday packet between New Orleans and Conshatta, on Red river. She was to have entered that trade on her arrival at New Orleans on this trip. The Submarine No. 13 will arrive here to-day, when Captain John T. Washington will have a hearing in regard to the charges preferred against him by the survivors of the Stonewall disaster. All of the insurance companies have concluded to adjust the losses occasioned by the sinking of barge No. 12 last month.

SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, SEAWEED TONIC AND MANDRAKE PILLS will cure Consumption, Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, if taken according to directions. They are all three to be taken at the same time. They cleanse the stomach, relax the liver and put it to work; then the appetite becomes good; the food digests and makes good blood; the patient begins to grow in flesh; the diseased matter ripens into the lungs, and the patient outgrows the disease and gets well. This is the only way to cure consumption.

To these three medicines Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, owes his unrivaled success in the treatment of pulmonary Consumption. The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs, nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, for when the phlegm or matter is ripe a slight cough will throw it off, and the patient has rest and the lungs begin to heal.

To do this, the Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver, so that the Pulmonic Syrup and the food will make good blood.

Schenck's Mandrake Pills act upon the liver, removing all obstructions, relax the ducts of the gall bladder, the bile starts freely, and the liver is soon relieved; the stools will show what the Pills can do; nothing has ever been invented except calomel (a deadly poison which is very dangerous to use unless with great care,) that will unlock the gall bladder and start the secretions of the liver like Schenck's Mandrake Pills.

Liver complaint is one of the most prominent causes of Consumption.

Schenck's Seaweed Tonic is a gentle stimulant and alterative, and the alkali in the Seaweed, which this preparation is made of, assists the stomach to throw out the gastric juice to dissolve the food with the Pulmonic Syrup, and it is made into good blood without fermentation or souring in the stomach.

The great reason why physicians do not cure Consumption is, they try to do too much; they give medicine to stop the cough, to stop chills, to stop night sweats, hectic fever, and by so doing they derange the whole digestive powers, locking up the secretions, and eventually the patient sinks and dies.

Dr. Schenck, in his treatment, does not try to stop a cough, night sweats, chills or fever. Remove the cause, and they will all stop of their own accord. No one can be cured of Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Catarrh, Canker, Ulcerated Throat, unless the liver and stomach are made healthy.

If a person has consumption, of course the lungs in some way are diseased, either tubercles, abscesses, bronchial irritation, pleura adhesion, or the lungs are a mass of inflammation and fast decaying. In such cases what must be done? It is not only the lungs that are wasting, but it is the whole body. The stomach and liver have lost their power to make blood out of food. Now the only chance is to take Dr. Schenck's three medicines, which will bring up a tone to the stomach, the patient will begin to want food, it will digest easily and make good blood; then the patient begins to gain in flesh, and as soon as the body begins to grow, the lungs commence to heal up, and the patient gets fleshy and well. This is the only way to cure Consumption.

When there is no lung disease and only Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are sufficient, without the Pulmonic Syrup. Take the Mandrake Pills freely in all bilious complaints, as they are perfectly harmless.

Dr. Schenck, who has enjoyed uninterrupted health for many years past, and now weighs 225 pounds, was wasted away to a mere skeleton, in the very last stage of Pulmonary Consumption, his physicians having pronounced his case hopeless and abandoned him to his fate. He was cured by the aforesaid medicines, and since his recovery many thousands similarly afflicted have used Dr. Schenck's preparation with remarkable success. Full directions accompany each bottle, making it not absolutely necessary to personally see Dr. Schenck, unless patients wish their lungs examined, and for this purpose he is professionally at his Principal Office, Philadelphia, every Saturday, where all letters for advice must be addressed. He is also professionally at No. 32 Bond street, New York, every other Tuesday, and at No. 35 Hanover street, Boston, every other Wednesday. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer the price is $5. Office hours at each city from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 a half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists. my19:151-d&F

Safety Fire Jacket, Car Heater and MODERATOR.
For Smoke and Hot Air Flues, dispensing with the use of stoves and fires in or where the Passenger or Baggage Cars, with the attachment to graduate the heat to any temperature that may be desired without the possibility of firing the car or cars to which the Jacket may be attached. Having obtained of the United States Letters Patent for a Safety Jacket, which is warranted to resist the most intense heat that may be applied to it in the connection, and is applicable to the use for which it is intended.
It is a sure protection from accidents by fire, originating from defective flues or where iron pipes are used as conductors for smoke or heat. It is applicable to all piping that may become overheated, and is warranted to give perfect satisfaction where wood or other combustible material may be placed in close proximity thereto. I am now ready to apply my invention to stores, dwellings, factories, ships, steamboats, railroad cars, &c. Wherever pipes as conductors are made dangerous by being overheated and security desired, I will send on application right to manufacture or use the above invention. Also Territorial rights to such as may wish to engage in selling privileges either State or county.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

The GAZETTE is furnished in the city for six days of the week for 15 cents per week; by mail, $8 per annum; 3 mos., $2.

Pittsburgh Councils will meet Monday afternoon, November 14th.

Sixteen citizens, male and female, occupied the lock-up at one o'clock this morning.

Yesterday afternoon a lady fell from a wagon in Lawrenceville and fractured two ribs. Dr. H. H. Clark rendered medical attention.

Yesterday Deputy Mayor Cartwright committed Jacob Keiser to jail for vagrancy. Jacob has been annoying East Liberty with his presence for a few weeks past.

Allegheny Commandery, No. 35, Knights Templars, will be instituted in the new Masonic Hall, Friday evening, November 12th by Sir Knight Robert Pitcairn, P. G. Commander of the State.

Trouble about an Oath.—Yesterday Thomas Whittaker alleged before Alderman Butler that John Gilles had sworn falsely in a certain case of illegal liquor-selling, before Alderman Hewen. Warrant issued.

Large Funeral.—The mortal remains of A. A. Carrier, Esq., were yesterday followed to the grave by a large concourse of people, who assembled to pay the last tribute of respect to a gentleman who was so much honored and admired.

Yesterday morning a piece of slate fell from the roof of St. Andrew Church, Ninth street, and struck Patrick Chislett, a laborer, on the head, inflicting painful injuries. Dr. Hamilton dressed the wound, which is not dangerous.

Handsome Dividend.—D. C. Hultz, Esq., Secretary of the Pittsburgh Insurance Company, one of our safest and most prosperous home institutions, announces a dividend of five dollars per share free of taxes, out of the earnings, which will be paid forthwith.

Threatened.—Thos. Whittaker states that Leonard Burke maliciously and with evil intent demeaned himself in such a manner toward him, that he fears bodily harm at his hands. Ald. Taylor notified his officer to wait on Leonard and induce him to visit the office for an explanation.

Consolation.—It will be a matter of pleasant information to some, that hanging hereafter in Allegheny county will take place inside the new jail, not in a lamp and disagreeable yard as heretofore, where the doomed man was apt to catch cold while waiting for the final shifting.

Enterprise.—Pittsburgh is fairly alive with building improvements. Brown and white stone, most of the former being brought from Philadelphia, and the latter from Massillon, Ohio, are generally used for fronts, iron being almost entirely discarded, although equally as pretty and more enduring.

Fires in the County.—From the report of the Fire Marshall, G. W. Murphy, it appears that there have been eight fires in the county during the month of October, and that the property destroyed amounted to $7,459, upon which there was insurance to the amount of $3,787; not insured $3,672.

A Brutal Father.—Information was made before Justice Salisbury, yesterday, by Catharine Sloenski, against her husband, John Sloenski, charging him with assault and battery. She alleges that John beat and abused his daughter in a brutal manner. The accused was arrested and held for a hearing.

Whisky Cases.—Chief Hague yesterday made informations before the Mayor charging Henry Schultz, Christ. Klotz, Barney Leisler, Mrs. McCauley, A. Gernet and J. M. Robeitzer with selling liquor on Sunday. The actions were instituted to recover the penalty of $50, and a summons was issued in each case.

Dedication.—It will be seen by a notice elsewhere that the new Presbyterian Church at Bloomfield, in the Sixteenth ward, is to be dedicated on Sunday next. Morning, afternoon and evening services will be held, at which the Rev. Drs. S. J. Wilson and W. D. Howard, and Rev. W. B. McIlvaine, will officiate. The occasion will be one of peculiar interest, and a very large attendance may be expected.

False Representations.—Yesterday Jacob Lossing, proprietor of a boarding house, corner of Bedford avenue and Fulton street, charged Francis Courtney before Alderman McMasters, with obtaining boarding to the amount of twenty-five dollars by representing he had money in bank, which was subsequently ascertained to be false. A warrant was issued.

Coal Yard Fight.—Yesterday Frederick Brininger made information before Alderman Thomas alleging that George Graham had struck him in the face with his fist. The row occurred in a coal yard, and was occasioned it is said by a business difficulty. The defendant was arrested and held for a hearing. He claims that Brininger used insulting language toward him which justified an assault.

Personal.—Dr. Reid, late of the firm of Drs. Lighthill & Reid, will open an office at No. 137 Grant Street, Pittsburgh, from November 6th until the 13th, inclusive. He will be pleased to meet any of his former patients and all others who may need his services, in the curing of old chronic complaints of the Eye, Ear, Throat and Lungs, Catarrh and Deafness. He also removes cancers by a new process, without the use of instruments. Remember the time and place, and call and see him. Consultation free. 6

Lamp Explosion.—Last night, about eight o'clock, an alarm of fire was struck from box 45, Allegheny Fire Department, located at the Ellsworth Engine House. The alarm was occasioned by the explosion of a lamp in the residence of Mr. Jas. McDonald, Third street. The lamp had been placed in a chair, and was just lighted when the explosion occurred, and the oil was scattered over the room. The chair and the carpet in the center of the room were burned, but further than this no damage was done. The engines were out, but did not go into service.

Still in the Lock-up.—The young man who was taken to the lock-up from the Connellsville Depot, Tuesday evening, because of insanity, still remains in that comfortable institution. The next day after his arrest he had a lucid interval of about half an hour, during which it was ascertained that his name is August Kephengst and that his friends reside in New York. He has been in St Louis for some months and was on his way home when the malady came upon him. His sister, Mrs. Sophie Linda, who resides in New York, has been telegraphed to relative to the case.

Home Again.—Our esteemed neighbor, Mr. William M. Bell, of the manufacturing firm of Holmes, Bell & Co., reached home yesterday, in fine health. He sailed from New York in company with a party of friends on the 30th June, and has, during an absence of four months, crossed and recrossed the Atlantic and visited a large part of Insular and Continental Europe, including England, Ireland, Scotland, France, Italy, Switzerland and most of the German States. A sincere and heartfelt welcome home greets him on all sides. May his shadow never be less.

Row in a Rolling Mill.

Yesterday Thomas Keller appeared before Alderman Thomas and made information against John Burke for assault and battery. The parties are employed in the Keystone Rolling Mill, and had a dispute, when it is alleged Burke overcome his opponent by a forcible argument in the way of an iron crowbar, which he wielded vigorously, and greatly to the discomfiture of his opponent. The Alderman issued a warrant for the arrest of the accused. There was subsequently a rumor afloat that Burke had fallen through a trestle work on the Connellsville Railroad and seriously injured himself, but we could not trace the rumor to any reliable source.

Inquest Concluded.

Yesterday afternoon Alderman Donaldson concluded the inquest on the body of the young man who met with his death on the Fort Wayne railroad on Wednesday. The witnesses testified substantially as we gave the particulars, with the exception of the brakeman, who said he observed three men climbing on the train just before it reached the Ohio street bridge, but that he did not see them get on top of the car or see them after the accident. It is supposed that one of them was the unfortunate victim. The jury, after half a dozen witnesses had been examined, returned a verdict "that the deceased, Boyd C. Algeo, came to his death on Wednesday evening, November 3rd, 1869, by being run over by a freight train drawn by engine No. 30, Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad, he having accidentally fallen off the train upon the track between Ohio and Ridge street, and the jury fully exonorates the employes of the same from any blame in the matter."

The parents of the deceased arrived from Harrisonville yesterday morning, and returned with the body for burial at home.

Another Case.

We mentioned a few days ago that Mr. Kinney Goff, Salt Inspector, had brought suit before Alderman Thomas against a grocer in the Diamond for refusing to allow him to inspect a quantity of imported salt, the merchant claiming that it did not come under the regulations of salt manufactured at home. The case was regarded as a test, and the Alderman's decision being against the merchant, it was appealed to Court. Since then another information has been made by Mr. Goff, on the same charge, against Mr. S. H. Baird, on Second avenue. The case was heard yesterday and the decision of the Alderman reserved. This, to our wholesale merchants, is an important matter, as they contend, and apparently with justice, that if the sacks containing the salt are once opened, they cannot be put together again in a proper manner, for storage, except at the manufactory; further that every time the salt is exposed to the air it is to a certain extent injured, and that the inspection of the salt in the manner prescribed is a waste of an article which is valuable, and entails a great loss upon them. The decision of the Court will be looked for with interest.

Street Cars.

We recommend the following paragraph from the New York Commercial Advertiser, to the especial attention of our street railway companies. We believe, that, as a general thing, our street cars are as well managed and comfortable as can be found in any city of the Union, but there are some exceptions to be made against a few of the conductors and drivers, who would probably be the better of a few words of advice upon the subject:

Now that the cold weather is coming on, the managers of our horse railroads should see to making their cars as comfortable as possible. During the winter months they are generally as uncomfortable as possible, and productive of not a few coughs, colds and other bodily complaints. The doors and windows should be closely fitted to the casings, leaving no apertures for air currents, and every car should be kept supplied with an abundance of fresh and clean straw. The exercise of a little foresight in these matters will add very materially to the comfort and health of passengers.

New Goods at an Old House.

E Houston & Son, merchant tailors, clothiers and dealers in gentlemen's furnishing goods, No. 107 Fifth avenue, corner Cherry alley, announce that they have just received, for the fall and winter trade of 1869-70, one of the largest and most judiciously assorted stocks of new goods, peculiar to their line of business, ever opened in the city. The stock embraces all the latest novelties of the fashionable world in the way of cloths, cassimeres and vestings, together with a fine assortment of well made and stylish clothing and gents' furnishing goods. They propose selling at greatly reduced prices, adopting a new system in their business, to sell at a very slight margin over cost, and thus rapidly turn their goods into money. From a life-times knowledge of these gentlemen we can commend them to our friends as eminently worthy their patronage, they being fair, honest and honorable in all their dealings.

OIL IN FLAMES.

Fire at Citizens' Refinery—Destruction of Warehouse and Oil—Loss $11,000—Fully Insured.

Yesterday afternoon a destructive fire occurred at the Citizens' Oil Refinery, just above the Sharpsburg bridge, which for a time threatened the demolition of the entire works. The first intimation of the conflagration given in the city was an alarm struck about three o'clock, which quickly summoned the fire department in full force to the scene. It seems that the fire was occasioned by a hot coal, dropped by a passing locomotive on the Allegheny Valley Railroad, which ignited a small quantity of oil spilled where it fell. The flames from this communicated to the gas from the refinery, which, during the present heavy atmosphere, circulates along the ground. It spread like a flash of lightning and reached the warehouse located but a few rods from the track, which, in an instant, was a blaze. The warehouse contained at the time between six and seven hundred barrels of refined oil, and the attention of the workmen was directed to saving it. The fire burned with such fierceness however, that only about one hundred barrels were secured, the balance, over five hundred barrels, falling a prey to the devouring element. The warehouse, a one storied structure, was also completely destroyed, but as it was located at some distance from the main portion of the works, the flames were prevented from spreading beyond it. The works were constructed in such a manner that plenty of space intervened between the tanks, stills, and every department, which alone prevented, on this occasion, their entire destruction. The company had a large quantity of oil, crude and refined, on hand, but fortunately the fire was kept within bounds and the damage will be comparatively small.

The total loss, including oil and warehouse, will not exceed ten thousand dollars, which is fully covered by insurance in eastern companies.

The "Citizen" is owned by a stock company, consisting of Messrs. J. M. Brush, James Bowen, The Messrs. McCord, Theodore Tack, D. F. Agnew, A. Lyons, and S. Owens. It is very carefully constructed, and is considered one of the largest and best refineries in this vicinity. The burning of the warehouse will not interfere with the running of the works, as it will be rebuilt immediately and another building occupied until its completion.

A Safe and Reliable Fire Insurance Company.

We do not know any subject of more special interest to the general business public as well as to all owners of real estate, than that of fire insurance. No prudent or cautious merchant will permit his place of business, his home or household, to remain a single hour in risk from accidents by fire, the most destructive of all elements, without having a compensating insurance on which to rely in emergencies. But it is better to have no insurance than to take out policies in companies unworthy of confidence, who will battle in Court against paying a cent when called upon to do so. In most cases the litigation draws from the assured as much as he can expect finally to realize as the result of his vexatious legal proceedings. It is, therefore, a matter of vital importance to those taking out insurance that they select a reliable and responsible company, such for instance as the Continental of New York, which has through a long term of years maintained a proud and leading position among the first class corporations of the country. It can abundantly afford to be honest and honorable, and those insured in it can feel as safe as possible. With cash assets amounting to over two and a quarter millions of dollars, no fire no matter how extensive it might be, or whether the whole country was simultaneously laid in ashes, could prevent the Continental from discharging every dollar of its liabilities. The system on which the affairs of this company are managed inures largely to the advantage of its customers—three quarters of the profits being divided in July of each year with them in scrip bearing interest at six per cent, until redeemed in cash, the remaining quarter only being divided among the stockholders. It requires no searching mental process to discover that by this system the customers of the company obtain their insurance at about what it costs the Continental to protect them, and under no circumstance are they liable for the losses. Those contemplating changing their policies or taking out new insurance on insurable interests, should give the Continental due consideration and call at the office of its courteous agent, James W. Arrott, Esq., No. 167 Wood street, where all needful information may be obtained.

Amusements.

OPERA HOUSE.—The patrons of the Opera House had the pleasure of hearing the Leffingwell in his speciality of the "Gushing Chlorinda," last evening, and to-night "Fra Diavolo" will be presented with the Leffingwell as "Beppo." Go and see him.

PITTSBURGH THEATRE.—The Lopez troupe of juvenile acrobats and gymnasts, in connection with the many other attractions presented to the patrons of the Pittsburgh Theatre, by Manager Williams, are drawing large audiences.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—"Perfectly delighted" would hardly express the sentiments of the intelligent and very large audience which greeted the inimitable Vandenhoff on the occasion of his first entertainment at the Academy of Music last evening. That popular reader and perfect elocutionist never seemed in better trim, and from the opening to the close of the entertainment held the attention of the audience completely, except when interrupted by cordial and flattering applause. His selections embraced every character from "gay to grave, from lively to severe," in the rendition of which the reader seemed equally at home, and exhibited the wonderful versatility of his genius. To-night the second entertainment will be given, and as it may be the last opportunity his admirers and the admirers of the highest style of elocutionary ability will have of hearing him, the occasion should be improved. For this evening the following entirely new programme has been selected:—"Paradise and the Peri," "Gaffer Gray," "The Destruction of Sennacherib," "Louise on the Door Step," "John Brown," "Scene from Sheridan's School for Scandal," "The Battle of Ivry," "For 'a That and a' That," "Mr. Winkle's Midnight Adventure."

The tickets are but fifty cents. Go early and secure a good seat, as there are none reserved.

On a Lark.

Three young sports of Allegheny started out Wednesday evening to make a "night of it," and succeeded so well in their designs that daylight next morning found them, with unsteady and slow steps, endeavoring to make their way up Federal street, bearing with them in soiled clothing, weary gait, and general dejected appearance evidences of their evening's entertainment. This, however, was not all. One of them, who occupies a room somewhere in the vicinity, took his companions there to sleep off their dissipation before again appearing in public. While in the room, instead of retiring they commenced the careless inspection of a revolver, and as a result, the weapon was discharged, the ball entering the foot of one of them, who it is needless to say was instantly sobered up. A physician was hastily summoned, the ball extracted and the wound dressed. The young man was then allowed to occupy the apartment until evening, when he was removed to his home. The accident was one under the circumstances unavoidable, and no information of course has been made. That young man hereafter will carry a memento of the occasion, which, if not agreeable, may at least be useful in teaching him to avoid the like in the future.

Confidential.

Another confidence game was developed yesterday. Twenty dollars was the amount which a young man from the country was swindled out of by a well dressed, oily talker, and a first-class confidence man at the Union Depot. The youth was employed by the stranger to take charge of a lot of horses, which were to be shipped to Baltimore. After the bargain, the two took a walk, stranger in a short time borrowed twenty dollars until he could get some gold changed, went to bank for that purpose, stranger went in, young man staid out long enough to discover that he was out all around, just the amount of the loan. Last evening he called upon the police, who are now on the lookout for the interesting stranger. He is not found and likely never will be.

Health and Fashion.

There are no two things in the whole vocabulary of more interest and importance to ladies, than health and fashion, for upon them, in an essential degree, depends the attractive appearance of the fair sex, and upon that attractive appearance depends, what they were born for, and what is their greatest and only earthly heaven, the admiration and love of the opposite sex.

These reflections have been suggested to us by the appropriateness and advantage of a fashion, which is becoming every day more and more universal, both in Europe and America. We mean that of wearing furs. Nothing is so essential to the health as well as the appearance of a lady, as to preserve those vital and delicate organs which are situated about the neck and chest. Left to exposure they become coarse, or wither and decay, but properly sheltered from the chilling winds of winter, like the plant in the nursery, they bloom in perpetual beauty.

Furs are not only the natural provision for the protection of those delicate and vital portions of the body; but there is nothing which so gracefully sets off the form, and heightens the attractive appearance of a lady, as a neatly fitting set of these rich and luxurious articles. A proof of this fact is found in the great rage which exists all over the world for this article of winter dress. Nothing is so genteel, nothing so comfortable, and no lady at church or on the street is now considered well dressed, without a set of furs.

Another great advantage of this fashion is the durableness of the article. A good set of furs, which costs no more than a shawl, will last a lifetime, and while the fashion of the shawl or sacque will change with every season, the furs are always fashionable.

To supply this inestimable article of comfort and luxury, the far off regions of Russia, of Hudson's Bay, of Africa, or of the Arctic Ocean, are taxed. The immense White Bear of the Polar region, the Bengal Tiger—the dread and terror of the native residents, the Seal, the Otter and Mink, in fact almost the whole animal kingdom are availed of, and under the skilful manipulations of our ingenious artizans, the animal hides are transformed into garments, rich, rare and comfortable, which resist the winds of winter with impunity.

Among the dealers in Pittsburgh, we know of none whose experience and extensive trade more thoroughly fit them for extensive operations in Furs, than the justly renowned and great representation Fur and Hat House of Wm. Fleming & Co., 139 Wood street. An examination of their extensive stock reveals to us one of the richest and finest assortments of Ladies', Misses' and Gentlemen's Furs we have ever seen.

They have Hudson Bay Sable, Mink Sable, Siberian Squirrel, Astracan, Persian Lamb, and every other variety, from the cheapest and plainest to the most valuable and magnificent sets. Their extensive cash purchases and rapid sales enable them to sell the same articles at from fifteen to twenty-five per cent. less than any other house in this part of the State. As no misrepresentations are allowed, all classes of our citizens may rely on being suited, and in getting the precise articles represented to them. We therefore unhesitatingly recommend the great wholesale and retail house of Fleming & Co., 139 Wood street, as the best place to go for furs. They are opening this week an immense new stock, unsurpassed for its variety and excellence.

Poplar Alley Excited.

Yesterday morning Poplar alley, that delectable locality in the Sixth ward, was excited by reason of hostilities between Margaret Catlin, a dusky female, and Margaret Duffey, a white ditto. The cause of the quarrel dates back to a period in the long ago, when Mrs. Catlin offended Mrs. Duffey and created a feud, which has existed ever since. Yesterday it broke out in a violent manner, when Mrs. Duffey so far forgot herself as to threaten her opponent with decapitation, by a painful process. That worthy immediately recognized her advantage and at once sought Alderman Thomas, laid before him an information for surety of the peace and caused a warrant to be issued for the arrest of Mrs. Duffey, who, by her impolitic conduct, lost all advantage in the dispute.

Exit Blondes.

It is intimated that the blondes are not to have it all their own way this winter, as they have had for several years past. The brunettes, instead of dyeing their hair a dingy yellow, and daubing their skins until their complexions looked like raw starch, have wisely determined to stick to their own brilliant and natural attractions, and fight it out upon that line. They have discovered that their utmost efforts only succeeded in producing a hideous sort of resemblance to the blondes, who were thus left masters of the field, superior to competition or rivalry.

This supremacy received a great blow, however, a few weeks ago, at a grand wedding which was considered as inaugurating the fashionable season. The beautiful bride, though not strictly a brunette, was not at all a blonde, but the four bridesmaids, all exceedingly lovely, were all decided brunettes, and wore in their dark tresses, only the scarlet flowers of the sweet-scented geranium. Their dresses were triumphs of art and taste. They consisted of white tulle, bouillone, trimmed with white satin paniers. The boquets of scarlet flours were placed on the left side of the bodice.—N. Y. World.

BRONZE.—They were shrewd men who constituted the people known as the "bronze race," or the race of men who used bronze tools and implements of war. There are virtues in this alloy that we have not yet fully appreciated. We have fine edge tools of it if we could discover the ancient method of hardening them. Chantrey, the sculptor, tried the experiment, and got so far as to make a bronze razor, with which he was wont to shave himself every morning. Of the durability of bronze we need say nothing; but its property of conferring durability upon contiguous objects is not well known. In fact, it has only just come out, in the course of an examination by a French chemist of the public statues in and about Paris. It was found that the stone pedestals of all those made of bronze were in perfect preservation, while all the supports of other figures had more or less decayed. It was clear that the bronze arrested decay; and when the rationale of its actions was discussed, little doubt remained that the rain-water trickling from the bronze upon stone contained a trace of copper in solution and that this poisoned the cryptogamous plants to which the disintegration of stone is probably due.

INDIAN SUMMER.—The New York Farmers' Club speculates upon the cause of Indian Summer in this wise: The warm, smoky spell known as Indian Summer, which is perhaps more peculiar to the Northwestern States of America than any other portion of the globe, always occurs after the first killing frost, not the first white frost, but one which is severe enough to bring down nearly all the forest leaves and kill the herbaceous plants. The bulk of vegetation thus destroyed is almost incalculable. In its decay this is undergoing slow combustion. Who can calculate the amount of smoke and heat given off, or what effect this must produce upon the atmosphere, or tell whether that is not the true cause of Indian Summer? In support of this theory the fact is patent that when forests were much more extensive the Indian Summer was longer, warmer and more smoky than at present.

A CLEVELAND citizen submits the question whether the Nicolson wood pavement in that city has proved a success or failure, and partially answers it by stating that as far as a smooth roadway is concerned it is, but he has some reserved points as to the matter of its durability. Its advocates claim that the pavement will last twelve years, but portions laid in 1866 and 1867, taken up to make water or gas connections, reveal the fact that some of the blocks are unsound, the tar-coated surface showing smooth, while the inside indicated rapid decay from dry rot. These rotten blocks, he says, must soon give way to the pressure of heavily loaded vehicles, or even to the tread of the horse, and this kind of pavement may become even more uneven on its general surface than the worst paved street.
